

Local Teacher Returns from Hawaiian Holiday

Mrs. Irene Morgan, of 654 W. 60th St. Los Angeles, a teacher in the Torrance Elementary School, and member of the Junior High School Council of Los Angeles State College Students, has just returned from a "group tour" of the Hawaiian Islands. She stayed at Waikiki, Honolulu and visited the Islands of Kalaui and Hawaii. She was there during the "signing of Statehood" and the Inauguration of the Governor of Hawaii. Mrs. Morgan is also a teacher in the Manchester Baptist Sunday School and is Chairman of the Church Music Committee.

Plans Made for New Junior Woman's Club

Mrs. Hugh K. Walker, Federation extension secretary for Marina District, C.F.W.C., Junior Membership, announces an organizational meeting to form a Junior Woman's club in Inglewood. The meeting will be held at the Inglewood Woman's Clubhouse, 325 North Hillcrest Boulevard and is open to all young women between the ages of 18 and 35.

Mrs. R. A. Whaling, co-ordinator for the Inglewood Woman's Club, and Mrs. Grant Putnam president, Marina District, will assist Mrs. Walker. The meeting will begin at 7:30 p.m. Sept. 16. Mrs. Walker may be reached at DA. 3-6760.

SCOUTING ENDED with the beginning of college for most of the girls of Senior Scout Troop 1299. Books for the college days ahead add up to a big pile as Mary Margaret Blount, Diane Hunter and Mardell Clayton get together for a final farewell. Under the leadership of Mrs. Adam Krauszer, the girls climaxed their years in Scouting with a trip across the United States this summer. Troop was sponsored by Torrance Business and Professional Women's Club.

Senior Girl Scouts Say Goodbyes at Final Meet

Senior Girl Scouts of Troop 1299 relived their recent trip through the United States at their pre-college get-together Tuesday evening.

The pot-luck affair was held at the St. Andrew's Episcopal Church Parish Hall. Special guests for the evening were Rev. and Mrs. Hugh R. Percy and Mr. and Mrs. Dale Shrum of Torrance. Also present were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Boogs and son of Compton. Bob was the driver on the chartered bus trip that took the troop across the States.

Following dinner slides and movies taken from all points of interest were shown. Barbara Campbell, Ginny Krauszer, Bess Arrasmith and Jean Giles acted as narrators for the evening.

A vote was taken by the girls to have the daily log of the trip printed in book form for each to keep. The girls also voted to send a contribution to Juliette Low's Birthplace at Savannah, Ga.

They were given a special privilege of having Juliette Low's niece as their guide on a tour of her home.

After meeting the vicar at Old North Church in Boston the girls agreed a donation should be sent to help defray expenses met by the small congregation.

Following their years of scouting the girls are now branching out to make their way in the world.

Joyce Cannon and Jackie Scherer have already completed one year of college education. Donna Arrasmith, Paula Bischoff, Diane Cook, DyAnn Davy, Gerry Day, Joan Donald, Sharon Giles, Diane Hunter and Loretta Robison will continue at El Camino College. Mary Margaret Blount is enrolled at Redlands University, Mardell Clayton at Long Beach State and Charlotte Percy has already left for Occidental College.

The girls plan to hold a reunion every Easter vacation at Newport Beach. They have spent the last four vacations together in the spring and want to continue to keep in touch with each other throughout the years.

Susan Hammack, Marsha Hunt, Denise Hunter and Sharon Ricci will be seniors at Torrance High School and Barbara Campbell and Ginny Krauszer will be Juniors. Mrs. A. Krauszer has been with the troop since the girls flew up from Brownies and Mrs. Fred Hansen has been with them through their Senior scouting.

Nativity Society to Hold Communion Breakfast Today

Frank Kelleher and Jim Fohey will be the speakers at the regular breakfast meeting of the Nativity Holy Name Society today at the Nativity parish hall at 1420 Cota St.

The meeting will be held immediately after the 8 a.m. Mass, during which the members of the society will receive Communion in a body.

Frank Kelleher, an all time Pacific Coast League Great, is a native Californian, and attended St. Mary's College. He entered baseball in 1936, playing for Akron in the Mid-Atlantic League. Kelleher signed with the Hollywood Stars in 1944.

Following service in the Armed Forces in 1945 he returned to the Stars until he retired after the 1954 season.

He played on six pennant-winning teams in his 19-year baseball career, compiling a lifetime batting average of .285 and walloped 359 home runs.

Jim Fohey is starting his 2nd year as head football coach of Bishop Montgomery High School. He is a graduate of St. Monica's High School in Santa Monica. This will be the first year of the Camino Real Catholic League and the toughest game for Jim will be against his old Alma Mater and his old coach at St. Monica's. His record last year was 4 wins.
