

Proclamation Declaring Tuesday, Sept. 15th

As the Day for Meditation and Prayer

WHEREAS, Mr. Khrushchev arrives in the United States next Tuesday, Sept. 15, as the leader of a world-wide movement which denies God and man's God-given liberty, which visit has disturbed many of us; and at the same time we all support the President in his ardent desire to bring peace to a troubled world; and

WHEREAS, something should be done to impress upon Mr. Khrushchev and his entourage the fact that we are a spiritual nation with a steadfast faith in God; and

WHEREAS, throughout the United States it is being suggested that a national minute of silence for meditation and prayer can accomplish a unity of all Americans in a way that will strengthen the President's hand during his meetings with the Soviet leader, while at the same time bearing witness to our nation's faith in God and devotion of freedom; and

WHEREAS, the idea is simple—a minute of silence from 11:00 a.m. to 11:01 a.m. (local time for each city) on the morning of Mr. Khrushchev's arrival on Sept. 15th, the same to be observed simultaneously and nation-wide;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Albert Isen, as Mayor of the City of Torrance and together with other communities of our nation, do hereby proclaim Tuesday, Sept. 15th, as a day for meditation and prayer in Torrance, and particularly that 11:00 a.m. to 11:01 a.m. be observed as a minute of silence for meditation and prayer, and I call upon the people of this community, City officials, businessmen, workers, housewives, school children, in short - everyone, to observe it.

It is requested that a copy of this Proclamation be sent forthwith to the churches and newspapers of Torrance, in order that our people be informed.

Dated this 8th day of September, 1959, at Torrance, California.

ALBERT ISEN
Mayor

Lomita Chamber to Hold Quarterly Dinner

Lomita Chamber of Commerce will hold its quarterly dinner at the Wayfarer's Restaurant, 2230 Pacific Coast Hwy. Sept. 16.

Tickets and reservations for the affair may be obtained through the Directors and Chamber offices, according to Jim Becker, chairman of the Dinner Committee. As only 100 tickets are being issued Becker advises those wishing to attend to make their reservations early.

The dinner program will include a selection of 20 members of the Lion's sponsored Harbor Youth Symphony Orchestra, under the direction of Eugene Minor, and a talk by Sergeant Warren F. Nickens.

Nickens, a member of the Los Angeles Sheriff's Dept. Forgery Division, will cover the general problems of bad checks. Examples will be shown and instruction given on how to cope with the problem.

Language Arts Courses Offered by High School

A wide choice of language arts classes is included in the Torrance Adult Education program this year. New classes include American Novel which will cover reading in American literature, past and present, critical evaluation and discussion of material read, history of American literature, development of appreciation for our American literary heritage.

Conversational French classes will meet at Torrance High School on Monday and Wednesday evenings from 7 to 9:30, and Conversational Spanish class meets at South High School on Tuesday and Thursday from 7 to 9:30 p.m.

A 12-week Spelling Clinic at Torrance High School on Monday evenings will feature intensive study on the mechanics of spelling and include word study, pronunciation, phonetics and definitions.

Wyeth Appoints Torrance Man

John J. Fitzgerald of Torrance has been appointed to the sales staff of Wyeth Laboratories, Philadelphia pharmaceutical concern, according to Stuart V. Smith, vice president.

Fitzgerald, who was formerly associated with the Fuller Brush Company, attended Illinois Institute of Technology.

His headquarters with Wyeth will be in Los Angeles. He resides at 1226 Crenshaw Blvd., Torrance.

Auditors to Address Accountants Wednesday

Program Director Bill Lee of Torrance announced today that the Long Beach Chapter of the National Association of Accountants will host the general auditor of Consolidated Chemical Industries on Wednesday at the Lafayette Hotel in Long Beach.

Moritz E. Pape of San Francisco, where the Stauffer Chemical Company's division plant is located will present a case study of operations entitled "Process Costs and Inventory Values in The Chemical Industry."

Chapter President Dick King of San Pedro and Rolling Hills extends a cordial invitation to anyone interested in this field of study to attend.

English Review classes to improve grammar, punctuation, sentence structure and composition are offered at North High and Torrance High Schools.

Special classes in English for Foreign Born will be held at Torrance High School Tuesday and Thursday evenings beginning Sept. 15.

A Public Speaking class at South High on Wednesday evenings will assist the student to eliminate stage fright and develop self-confidence and poise when speaking before a group. All adult classes begin next week.
