Afternoon Nuptials Unite Hodge, Volmer

Afternoon nuptials were exchanged at St. Lawrence Martyr Church, Sept. 12, by Miss Judith Alma Hodge and Ronald Lloyd Volmer. The bride, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur O. A. Hodge of Tulsa, Oklahoma, was escorted to the altar by her father with the ceremony officiated at the ceremonies uniting her to the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Volmer of 8005 Gallatin Rd., Downey. The brides white satin gown featured touches of imported lace and a cathedral length train. She carried a bouquet of white gardenias and stephanotis. The bride's sister, Mrs. Susan Stout, served her as matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Misses Barbara Phillips, Marlene O'Shea and Jean Anderson. Raymond Van Couvery acted as best man with Walter Stout, Muary O'Shea and Royce Wilks as ushers. Elizabeth Hesler wore a blue satin dress trimmed with white in her role as flower girl with Jack Heiser playing the part of ring bearer. The bride's mother chose a cocoa brown peau de sole and lace dress for the occasion. The mother of the bridegroom wore a dress of royal blue satin. Following the wedding a reception in honor of the newlyweds was held at the Hacienda Hotel in San Pedro. The bride is a graduate of Backersfield High School and attended the University of Tulsa 1957-58 and the University of California at Berkeley, 1958-59.

Past Presidents Honored at Auxiliary Meeting

"Past President's Day" was the theme of the opening meeting of the Torrance Memorial Hospital Auxiliary held Tuesday at the Caprino restaurant in Torrance. Mrs. Grover C. Whyte, chairman of the program, introduced each past president, remarking on the important advancements the organization made under her leadership. Under the direction of the group's new president, Mrs. William Boswell Jr., Mrs. Whyte presented the former officers with past president's pins, the first time such an award has been made by the auxiliary. Those honored were Mmes. R. R. Smith, 1951-53; John Melville, 1953-54; Gerald Eastham, 1954-55; Eugene Cook, 1955-56; John Beeman, 1956-57; Ralph McNeil, 1957-58, and Paul Roettger, 1958-59. In addition to the Past President's Day ceremonies, members listened to plans for the coming year presented by officers and directors. Speaker for the day was Torrance psychologist Dr. Alar Schlaff, who gave a talk on "Emotional Problems in Children." During the remainder of the year the Torrance Hospital Auxiliary will meet on the second Tuesday of each month.

Annual Picnic Held by Tau Phi Sorority

Tau Phi Sorority held its third annual family potluck picnic dinner recently at Lomita Park. Close to 100 members of the sorority and their families and friends attended the affair. The sorority, is composed of members who worked together, some for over ten years, at Smith Brothers' Fish Shanty. From the original 18 charter members the group now numbers 38. Each month the group meets for lunch at a well known restaurant in the area. June Petrick is president of the sorority. Mrs. Rex Eipper headed the arrangement committee for the park picnic with the help of Mrs. Jay Imel. Mrs. Wardie Noble and Mrs. Martha Wooten were in charge of table decorations.
