

Chamber Sponsors Torrance Night at Carthay Circle

The Torrance Chamber of Commerce will sponsor a Torrance Night at the Carthay Circle on Wednesday, Oct. 14, to view "Porgy and Bess," it was announced today by President J. H. Pagel.

William Hanson, special events chairman, said local residents would be offered a 50 cent discount on each ticket and that reservations could be secured by calling the Chamber office at FA 8-2814.

Ticket prices are $2.50, Hanson said. Special buses will leave the Torrance Civic Center at 7:15 p.m. on Wednesday, Oct. 14. Bus cost for the round trip will be $1 for adults and 50 cents for children.

Hanson said the Chamber has successfully sponsored many such trips—all with great success. Plans call for many other tours and trips throughout the year, he added.

Torrance Fighter Pilots Complete Navy Training

Lt. Leslie W. Asquith of 17027 Ainsworth Ave. and Lt. Charles H. Stowe of 22627 Kathryn Ave. have completed their 14-day training program as members of Fighter Squadron 775 at the Naval Air Station Los Alamitos in Long Beach. Lt. Stowe served as pilot and communications officer, and Lt. Asquith served as pilot and materiel officer.

Fighter Squadron 775, flying the swift Cougar Jet, achieved a high degree of operational readiness. Although a few operational problems were encountered, the squadron massed a large number of flight hours, qualifying

New Course in Salesmanship

A one-semester course covering the techniques of selling, development of a salesman's personality, product knowledge and opportunities in selling is offered at Torrance Evening High School.

The class, open to men and women over 18, will meet on Wednesday evenings from 7 to 9:30 p.m., Room 121, Torrance High School. Especially of interest to local women wishing full or part-time work in retail stores or door-to-door saleswork, as well as men wishing training in all branches of selling, the class is offered free of charge by the Torrance Adult Education Department.

Interested persons register at any meeting of the class. For information, call FA. 8-8080, Ext. 295.
