

Completes 10 Weeks at Fort Belvoir

Army Pvt. Robert A. Peterson, son of Victor Peterson, 25416 Oak St., Lomita, Calif., recently completed the ten-week liquid-oxygen plant operation course at The Engineer School, Fort Belvoir, Va.

He was trained to operate and perform maintenance on equipment used in the generation, storage, handling and transfer of liquid oxygen.

Peterson entered the Army last

Torrance Men Attend G.E. X-ray School

Two Torrance men, Arne Mars and John Czamecki, are in attendance this week in Milwaukee at the annual X-Ray Diffraction School conducted by the X-Ray Department of the General Electric Company.

A record attendance of 110 scientists and researchers from a great variety of industrial, governmental and education agencies have registered for the clinic.

Purpose is to bring together for a common interchange of knowledge a group of noted scientists and guest lecturers in the fields of X-Ray diffraction and instrumentation.

Dr. David Harker, director, Protein Structure Project, Polytechnic Institute of Brooklyn, heads a list of noted speakers participating in the school. He is presenting a series of five lectures on "Review of the Theory and Practice of X-Ray Physics for Crystallography."

April and received basic combat training at Fort Ord, Calif.

A 1956 graduate of Narbonne High School, Lomita, the 21-year-old soldier attended the University of California at Los Angeles.

Back-to-School Party Held by Dance Group

Fort Nightly Cotillion held its back to school party recently at the Studio of Arts, 179 Via Los Miradores.

Attending the party were 50 children of two age groups, 4th through 7th graders and High School students.

Howard Trimmer teaches the groups which meet every two weeks for one hour of instruction patterned after the old fashioned dance school. The classes which include Torrance children still have a few openings, announces Trimmer.

The Cotillion is partially cooperative with groups organized at the invitation of mothers. Grades 4th and 5th, meet next Tuesday from 7 to 8 p.m. and grades 6th to 7th from 8 to 9 p.m. at the Studio.

Hostesses at the party were Mmes W. A. Zoiller, George Savage, William Thomas, F. E. Darby, Norman Kuska, Richard Jones and Lawrence P. Bailey.
