Uni-Women Reveal Fall Topics and Dates

Fun and learning in a wide variety of fields await members of the American Association of University Women, Palos Verdes-Rolling Hills branch, with announcement of topics, dates and places for fall study sections.

Initial meeting for the craft section is set for Wednesday, 9:30 a. m., at the home of Mrs. William A. Bailey, 805 Esplanade, Redondo Beach. Meeting with her will be all those interested in mosaics, ceramics, photography, furniture refinishing, paper craft and landscape painting.

There are still a few openings for the dance group, which is limited to ten couples. Chairman is Mrs. Alfred B. Geyer.

Non-member friends are welcome to join in the portrait painting class to be given one evening a week by Mrs. Laurence T. Dailey, art section chairman, in her studio, 179 Via Los Miradores, Redondo Beach. Mrs. Ross K. Easmussen will lead the landscape painting group.

Musically inclined recruits are being sought by the instrumental music section, headed by Mrs. Charles H. Knight, and the folk singing group with Mrs. Ragnar Thorensen, chairman.

Husbands of members are invited to participate in the drama section meetings. A series of one-act plays will be read at the first get-together at 8 p. m. Oct. 21 at the home of Mrs. William R. Sowell, chairman.

Bernice Goodwin New Secretaries' Magazine Editor

Mrs. Bernice Goodwin, 1020 Maple Ave., has been selected as southwestern district assistant editor for The Secretary Magazine, official publication of the National Secretaries Association (International), and publicity director of the California division.

She is charter member of South Bay Chapter of the NSA (I) in Torrance, having served as the Chapter's first president. Subsequently, she acted as the first administrative assistant to the president of the California Division, and as public relations representative of her own Chapter.

Formerly secretary of the City Council and Commission of the City of Torrance, Mrs. Goodwin has attended all California Division meetings since becoming a member of NSA (I), serving as delegate from her Chapter in 1957 and 1958.

She was a participant in the President's Panel at the Regional Meeting in Los Angeles in 1957, and in the Public Speaking Panel at the International Convention in 1958.

Mrs. Goodwin was formerly a business teacher at the Kern School of Business in Bakersfield and since has held many interesting positions in her secretarial career.

Miss McMonigle to Reign as Rancho Queen

Miss Frances McMonigle, lovely daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. McMonigle of Hollywood Riviera, and one of 64 contestants for the title, was selected to reign as Queen of the annual Rancho San Antonio charity ball presented Friday night at the Hollywood Paladium.

An estimated 6000 people jammed the Hollywood nightspot to witness the crowning of Miss McMonigle by James O'Toole, grand knight of the Los Crusados council of the Knights of Columbus. The annual fund-raising project is sponsored by the Southern California chapter of the Knights of Columbus.

The new queen, a candidate of the Torrance-Redondo Beach council, is a high school junior at St. Anthony in Long Beach. Frances participated in a strenuous four-month campaign conducted by the Los Crusados council culminating in her crowning as the queen of the Rancho San Antonio ball Friday night.

Whitney, progress chairman and Stokely, publicity chairman.

Torrance Native Daughters to Assist at Tea

Three Torrance women, active in affairs of the Beverly Hills Parlor, Native Daughters of the Golden West, will assist as hostesses at a membership tea the parlor is giving, from 2 to 4 p. m. Oct. 11. Setting for the tea will be the home of Mrs. Francis W. Sullivan, 2400 Shenandoah St., Los Angeles.

The local women are Mrs. Roger W. Peltz, 4310 Chatham, the parlor's third vice-president, and Mrs. Helen May Sweetman and her daughter, Miss Carla Sweetman, 3761 West 177th Street.

The tea will honor 28 prospective members of the parlor. They will be welcomed at the affair by Mrs. Harold G. Lawrence, president, and Mrs. Charles D. Bradley, membership chairman. Miss Grace S. Stoermer, NDGW past grand president, a 53-year member of the statewide women's patriotic organization, will explain its precepts and projects.

"ROUND-UP THEME"—Posters showing the number of "steers roped" during the Oct. 6 to 12 PTA membership drive will be on display in all Evelyn Carr Elementary School classrooms during the week. Left, Mrs. Robert L. Dennis, membership chairman, Richard Welte, principal and Mrs. Herbert Pasler, art and poster chairman, pose with one of the signs.
