Douglas Paper Honored on Bonds

An award for superior reporting and editing of news accounts of Douglas Aircraft company employee purchases of United States Savings Bonds was presented to the editor of the company's weekly newspaper, Airview News, yesterday.

Arthur Rense, editor, received the award from Jean Lemons—Mrs. United States Saving Bonds—who toured the company's El Segundo facility.

DEMO GROUP PLANS PARTY HALLOWEEN

The Torrance Democrats will hold a costume Halloween party Friday, Oct. 30 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roger West, 21710 Vicky Ave., in the Southwood tract of Torrance.

All Torrance members of the party are invited and admission is free to this, the first of a series of social events planned for this fall.

First Rag Drive Held

Hillside PTA held its first paper drive of the year recently at the school.

The prize money is used by the winning rooms for classroom projects.

HIGH TEMPERATURE
 The moon may inspire romance, but it's no place for a honeymoon. World Book Encyclopedia reports that the temperature climbs to 212 during the day and drops to 240 below at night.

Ford Announces Lower-Price Car

Ford today announced two new models priced $25 under the Fairlane, the lowest-priced series.

These Custom 300 models are available in two and four-door body styles with six or eight-cylinder engines.

The factory suggested list price of the two-door, six-cylinder model is $2026, and the four-door sedan $2076.

deluxe of traffic signals and declared a hanging signal is a sight better than no signal. There is no money for any signals in the budget.

All junior and senior councilmen concluded the session, which was forced by fatigue into two recesses, by compliments to their counterparts. The juniors thanked the council for the learning they amassed; the seniors thanked the juniors for memorable experience.
