"Discover With Others" Theme of Y-Teen Clubs

Teenagers of the Harbor area are looking ahead to new discoveries as they answer the Y-Teen roll call of the Harbor YWCA this week according to Virginia Burton, co-ordinator of the teen-age program. Plans are announced for local participation in the 11th annual roundup of teen-age members of the YW.

"Discover With Others—Join the Y-Teens" is again the theme for the annual membership enrollment. Teenagers are invited to visit the YWCA branch nearest to their homes.

Today's Meeting
The Hi Debs of South High, Torrance, Lindy Roettger, president, invite new girls to visit their meeting today. It will be held at the Branch building, 2320 Carson, at 7 p.m.

Wilmington Plans
Saturday will be Y-Teen Day at the Wilmington High School, 2-4 p.m. Junior and Senior High club will present a skit based on a YW activity as a means of telling new girls about Y-Teens. Winning club in the contest to bring in the most material for the Kits for Korea will be announced. The winning group will receive pins.

for girls interested in joining their Y-Teens today. Gloria Leonard is president of this group. Mrs. Clifton Hix, advisor, is assisted by Mmes. Peter Grassi and Wilbur Leonard.

Vows Exchanged by Salas and Burlingame
Decorations of bows and flowers provided the backdrop for the September wedding of Miss Evelyn Irene Salas and Joseph Patrick Burlingame at St. Margaret Mary Church.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hilario Salas of 2358 West 236th St., was escorted to the altar by her father. Her bridal gown was of chantilly lace with a sabrina neckline and chapel-length train. Her illusion veil fell from a crown of sequins and pearls and she carried a bouquet of carnations and orchids.

Wearing a dress of red taffeta and carrying a bouquet of matching red and white carnations, Miss Diana Doyle served the bride as maid of honor. Kenneth Teaser acted as best man for the bridegroom, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Otis Paton of 2428 Andrew St., and Larry Salas performed the duties of usher.

by the screening of "Sue Brown, Y-Teen," and refreshments. On Saturday the Castelettes will serve a chicken dinner to which the public is invited. Proceeds will help send girls to the national Y-Teen conference.

Vows Exchanged by Salas and Burlingame

The mother of the bridegroom chose a dress of blue chiffon.

Following the nuptials, a reception honoring the newlyweds was held at the home of the bride, with more than 500 guests attending. Reges Sandoval and his orchestra provided music for dancing.

Special guests at the wedding and reception were Charles and Jess Deuan of San Jose, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Palafox, Fred Palafox and fiancée and Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Gissart of Tucson, and Mr. and Mrs. Armando Ohresorgen of San Diego.

The bride, a graduate of Torrance High School, 1953, is employed by the Bank of America. The bridegroom, who was graduated in 1953, from Narbonne High School, is employed by Johns-Mansville.

The bridal couple spent their honeymoon at Sequoia and Yosemite and are now at home at 916 Sartori Ave., Apt. C.

DIPPING INTO SUPPLIES at Torrance YWCA in preparation for Y-Teen "Dime a Dip" dinner Saturday are new members Jean Hutchins and Ruth Jones. Mrs. J. B. Mosley, right, is vice-chairman of the YW and co-chairman for the dinner.

'It's Hi Time' Theme of Tuesday Meet

"It's Hi Time" was the theme of the first Torrance High School PTA meeting Tuesday at 7:30 p.m. at the boys' gymnasium.

Joann Carr, junior class president, led the inspirational, which was followed by community singing.

Students modeled the proper physical education uniforms and a demonstration of the trampoline was given. Pep band and pep squad demonstrations were conducted by Jacqueline Marshall and Francis Snyder.

Faculty chairmen for the evening were Elen Mohan and William Hoag Jr. Featured PTA chairmen were Mrs. Les Beatty, membership, and Mrs. Cleo McComas, magazine.

The Torrance High School PTA executive board held its regular meeting Tuesday, Oct. 6, at the school. Mrs. Robert Moffitt, president, announced

Judith South Exchanges Nuptial Vows

Miss Judith South, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Reed, became the bride of Charles R. Talewitzke at ceremonies performed by Rev. Harry J. Lansman, Oct. 3 at 7:30 p.m. at the Avalon Baptist Church.

The bride wore a gown of white nylon over taffeta with a veil of white nylon and carried a bouquet of white rosebuds centered with an orchid.

Elsie Rains, gowned in a light blue taffeta dress served as maid of honor. Bridesmaids, wearing identical gowns of dark blue taffeta, were Virginia Conlan and Katherine Nursall.

Maurice Reed served his brother as best man. Ushers were Dennis Stragney and Henry Gartley.

Following the wedding a reception honoring the newlyweds was held at the church.
