Educating the Nitwit

Editor Don Robinson of The American Press observes: "Having kept up fairly well with the so-called progress of our educational system in small-town America, as reported in country newspapers, I am becoming increasingly convinced that all the fancy school buildings, the demands for more and more extracurricular facilities, the unimaginative requirements for teachers, and the insistence upon higher education for all nitwits, has resulted in little progress... In my opinion, a group of 15 or 20 children, gathered together in a small building for the sole purpose of learning, and taught by a teacher who is more concerned with their welfare than her own, would still get a much finer education than is available in our present million-dollar monuments to learning."

"WHO'S WHO" BUSINESS INDEX

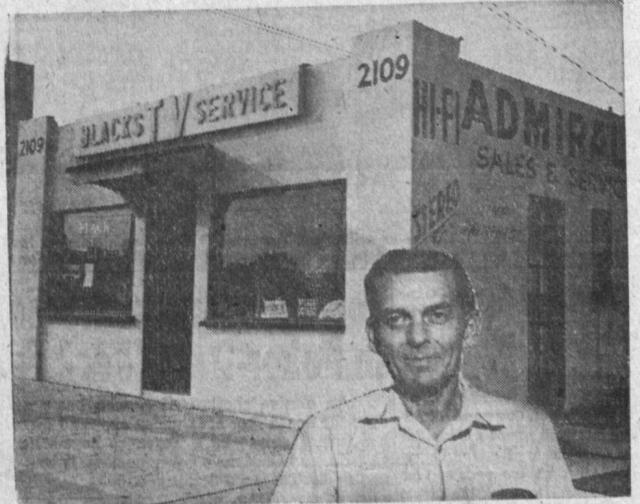

SAHARA BEAUTY SALON

Be a new woman! Or at least feel like one, with your hair tinted a becoming shade and restyled to suit a new personality. You can achieve glorious results from an appointment at the Sahara Beauty Salon, 1407 Redondo Beach Blvd., Lawndale, where they specialize in both tinting and styling. Owner Florence Pullen is particularly interested in the lovely results to be obtained with the modern materials made available in the last few years. No longer need a woman be afraid of tints for her hair. But for those definitely not interested in tints, a shampoo, perhaps an oil treatment, a styling—all these can make you look and feel "new." Other beauty care, including eyebrow arching and manicures, are offered at the Sahara Beauty Salon. Miss Pullen opened her shop Sept. 10 following her graduation from beauty college and several years experience in other shops. Acclaimed by her customers are the air-conditioned hair dryers which have been installed for "drying comfort." Also approved by her steadily increasing clientele is the ample car parking space. Open daily from 9-6, the Sahara Beauty Salon does evening work by appointment. Miss Pullen will be happy to serve your beauty desires.
