

LUNCHEON PLANS for Oct. 22 luncheon of El Camino College Faculty Wives at Club Alondra were recently discussed in the home of Mrs. Gerald Thompson (left), 1533 Cordary Ave., Lawndale, president. Mrs. Lloyd Brown, second from left, is secretary to the group; Mrs. Bill Mooney, hospitality chairman; Mrs. James Gu-altieri, treasurer.

University Women Honor Members at Friendship Tea

The American Association of University Women, Palos Verdes-Rolling Hills Branch, will honor 44 new members at its Friendship Tea Oct. 18.

Setting for the affair will be the Palos Verdes Estates home of Mrs. Donald W. Randolph, 925 Via Panorama. Hours will be 2 to 5 p.m.

In the receiving line with Dr. Mildred S. Miller, president, will be Mrs. Harold G. McLendon, second vice president, and Mrs. Harold O. Simar, treasurer. General chairman is Mrs. Donald A. Limerick, first vice president.

In charge of introducing newcomers to the membership will be Mrs. Robert W. Burson, assisted by Mrs. Robert W. Vance, Mrs. J. Richard Osterlind, Mrs. Lee Garwood, Mrs. Richard Merriam, Mrs. Carl Lawrence, Mrs. Walter H. Gillis, Mrs. H. C. O'Brien, Mrs. James Huesdens and Mrs. Gunnar E. Gyllenswan. Alternating in presiding at the tea and coffee urns will be Mmes. Edwin N. Bobrow, charter president of the group; Randolph, the hostess; Edgar L. Armi, Ross Kinkel, Arthur Stribley, Gunnar E. Gyllenswan, Paul Reeder and Calvin N. Warfield.

Mrs. John F. Harryman, name tag chairman, will be assisted by Mrs. E. A. Stackhouse and Mrs. Douglas L. Stone, secretaries of the branch. Serving on Mrs. Gene L. La Husen's hospitality committee will be Mmes. John W. Shuler, Howard W. Swarhout and Donald S. Melstrom.

Assistants for Mrs. Raymond Oddone, invitations chairman, are Mmes. James Huesdens, Harry G. Peterson, Albert E. Anderson, Donald W. Randolph and Dean C. Dunlavy. Decorations chairman is Mrs. Carl Lawrence with Mrs. William A. Bailey assisting.

New members of the organization are: Miss Mary Louise Arguello, Mrs. Thomas P. Black, Mrs. Howard W. Bloom, Mrs. Charles W. Brasher, Mrs. Wayne J. Colahan, Mmes. James D. Conant, John E. Dozier, William B. Dugan, Ernest F. Dummel, Fred W. Edwards, Emery B. Emmes, John W. Faherty, Frederic Fenger, Mmes. William K. Ford, William M. Graham, Frederick A.

Gunderson, Lillian Hardage, Harold Hirschland, Graydon Hofferber, Robert H. Johnson, John C. King, Charles H. Knight, Robert L. Larson.

Mrs. Richard M. Linde, Miss Margaret Marshall, Mrs. Lorenzo C. Miller, Mrs. George E. Moll, Mrs. John M. Moore, Mrs. Robert L. Paige, Mrs. Jerome A. Prizlow, Mrs. Phillip H. Simon.

Mrs. Edson W. Stratton, Mrs. Alfred Tarot, Mrs. Arthur J. Thompson, Mrs. John R. Walchli, Mrs. Robert L. Wattenbarger, Miss Rosalie R. Wride, Mrs. James R. Ziegler, Mrs. Robert W. Montgomery, Miss Rhoda Johnston, Mrs. Wesley H. Hillendahl, and Mrs. William R. Sowell.

Auxiliary Gives Style Luncheon

A fall fashion forecast highlighted the recent annual Pinkie fashion luncheon of the Torrance Memorial Hospital Auxiliary.

The Crystal room of the Palms Restaurant was the setting for the fashion event presented by the Sam Levy Department store.

Ella Schwartz co-ordinated and direct the show and Sylvia Miller, fashion editor of the Torrance Press was commentator. Models selected from the Auxiliary membership were Mmes. Dean Sears, Bert Lynn, Robert Leech, Allen Pyeatt, Forrest Riegel and William Boswell.

According to Mrs. H. F. Heinlein, general chairman, over 200 members and their guests attended the affair which will support the Pinkie project. Reservations may be obtained by calling Mrs. Heinlein at FA 8-6130.

"Pinkies" are the little hand-puppets which are given to each child admitted to the hospital's pediatric ward. Assisting Mrs. Heinlein were Mmes. Phillip Halloran and Richard Cusimano, decorations; James Colella, door prizes; Leonard Ensminger, hospitality; and William E. Grubbs, programs.

Use classified ads for quick results. Phone FA 8-2345.

for and about Women

Betty Laurent for Mary Neth, Women's Editor

Telephone FAirfax 8-2345

Dental Assistants Present Fashions

Centinela South Bay Dental Assistants Society will present their annual fashion show Oct. 19 at the Mayflower Ballroom, 234 Hindry Street, Inglewood. It will start at 8 p.m. Tickets may be purchased at the door.

Cleo's and Cappy's will show a variety of fall styles in dressy wear, sportswear and lingerie. Narrator will be Betty Uhls of Betty's Professional Uniform Shop, Redondo.

Entertainment will include special skits and a few local doctors will participate. Refreshments will follow the show and door prizes will be given.

Name Models

Models will include Elma Bullock, Gail Geverink, Loyce Herman, Carole Hoover, Jean Murooka, Ann Neustedt, Bette Schurr, Beverly Woods, Winnie Hubert, Mary Ann Hudak, Bea Ivey. And Drs. Carl Lundgren, W. Marano, Don Shire, Keith Packard, Sidney Pattison, Douglas Toil.

Plan Clever Party Decor

Baby bottle name tags and newspaper extras headlining "Nursery Fund to Show Incline," will be the decor for a salad luncheon Thursday in the home of Mrs. G. C. Erickson, 5416 Redlands Pl.

Mrs. Erickson, new director, will entertain members of the San Diego Choral Club. Luncheon will be served at noon and proceeds will go for child care expenses during weekly rehearsals. Mrs. J. R. Palmer and Mrs. R. D. Clark will give brief biographies of Meredith Wilson and George Handel, two of the composers whose compositions have been chosen for the annual Choral Club Christmas concert. Robert Slater, a scholarship applicant, and pianist from Hoover High School, will entertain.

Local Family Returns from Northern Trip

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Robertson of 22111 S. Harvard Blvd. and their three children, Larry, Lana and Laura recently returned from a three week vacation trip to the North. Accompanying the Robertsons was Miss Betty Kimbrough of Gardena.

The trip included a trip to see their oldest son, Lee, who is stationed in Ft. Lewis Washington. They toured the base and Washington while there.

Following they spent over a week in Portland, Oregon, at the home of Mr. Robertson's brother, Mr. Paul Robertson and his family.

From there they went to Hermiton, Oregon, and spent a couple of days with Robertson's cousin, Willard Robertson and family, seeing the Columbia River from both sides.

After viewing the Oregon and California Redwoods, Mt. Rainer and Mt. Shasta they journeyed on down to Eugene and Springfield, Oregon, to visit with Mrs. Robertson's brother, Jack Milford and family who run a milk dairy estate.

Touring on down they stopped at Klammoth Falls where they visited Robertson's sister, Mrs. Jack Fox and her family. Grants Pass came next with many beautiful sights along the way.

The Robertsons stopped in Monterey to visit two more sisters and families of Robertson, Mrs. Vancil Jones and Mrs. Glen Harper on their return home.

AUSTRALIAN VISITOR Miss Iris Hogben of Melbourne YWCA is welcomed by Torrance Y-Wives president Mrs. Johnson Lofland, preceding Tuesday talk before the group at the local YW.

Local Y-Wives Host Australian Visitor

Y-Wives of Torrance YWCA heard of YW work in Australia Tuesday from Miss Iris Hogben, program assistant in the clubs and classes department of the Melbourne YWCA. Miss Hogben spent two days with the Harbor area association before visiting in San Diego, Portland, and Salem and will return home via San Francisco Nov. 2.

Miss Hogben, in turn was interested in American families and young people's use of their leisure time. She told of the interest of young Australian Y members in the early marriage age which they have heard was the custom here. She herself was particularly interested in observing types of educational classes carried on in connection with the American YWCA.

Special Guests Are Honored at Sorority Party

Omicron Pi and Xi Zeta Lambda, Torrance chapters of the South Bay Area Council of Beta Sigma Phi, assisted at a recent "presentation party" for specially invited guests at Darby Park, Inglewood.

Members participating in the program were Mmes. Ray Millhouse, Joseph Wolfe, Bert White and John Wise. Blanche Wright and Mrs. Harry Martin refreshments; Mrs. Homes Webster, Mmes. Fred Byk, Jack Rogers and Richard Evans display table. Mrs. Fran Nichols acted as program coordinator and Mrs. Robert Milligan gave the fashion report.

Mrs. Lester Mayfield, president of the council, welcomed guests, conducted the meeting and was official hostess for the evening. Mrs. Roy Jennings, general chairman for the presentation party, introduced master of ceremonies Edward N. Bliss Jr., chief investigator for the Los Angeles County Public Defender's office.

Other members attending were Mmes. Walt Templin, Edward Litaker, Donald Haney, William Swisher, William Crow, Eric Swanson and Charles Whitesell.

AFS Students on Woman's Club Program

Mary Smiley, Jerry Duncan and Michael Robbins, local students who spent six weeks in Europe last summer under the American Field Service program, will be on the Wednesday afternoon program of Torrance Woman's Club. Each lived with two different families during their stay. Their experiences will be shared with club members as they relate their observations.

Members will enjoy their usual pot luck luncheon at 12:30 in the club house. Their business meeting and the program will follow.

DAR Schedules Indian Program

A program on the American Indian will be presented at the Oct. 18 meeting of the Susan B. Anthony Chapter, DAR to be held at the Silver Saddle Inn, Downey, at 1 p.m. All members are urged to attend and visiting daughters are cordially invited.

Dine at Polynesian

Among the Torrance diners recently noted enjoying the tropical atmosphere, exotic cuisine and island music at The Polynesian Restaurant in Torrance were Mr. and Mrs. Harold R. Balkman, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Fitzgerald, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Ellis, Miss Helene Donahue and Mr. and Mrs. Richard F. Meyer.

PUNCH BOWL HOSPITALITY is enjoyed Saturday by Torrance Junior Woman's Club provisionals in the home of Mrs. Clifford Trezise, 3232 El Dorado St. From left: Mmes. Joe Mongini, Eric Barner, Richard Gerald and Taylor Bumbalough.

New Provisional Juniors Entertained at Fall Tea

The executive board of Torrance Junior Woman's Club honored their new provisional members Saturday at an "Autumn Leaf" tea in the home of Mrs. Clifford Trezise, 3232 El Dorado St. Hours were from 2 to 4 p.m.

Provisionals were greeted by Mrs. Kenneth Boulter, president, and Mrs. W. E. Starr, 2nd vice president. They were seated in the living room where punch was served by other members of the board.

Board members were introduced, each giving a brief description of the duties of her club office.

Honored guests were then directed to the buffet table where they were served chocolate mousse and coffee or tea. Mrs. Boulter and Mrs. A. F. R. Ewalt, senior co-ordinator, poured.

Happy Scare-Crow

Decorating the buffet was an arrangement of autumn leaves and fall flowers centered by the lovely crystal punch bowl which was a gift to the club from the seniors. A charming scare-crow assembled by Mrs. A. R. Felando Jr. presided over the scene. Invitations and name tags were leaf shaped.

Provisionals

Provisionals attending the tea

Royal Neighbors Plan Bazaar

Friendship Sewing Circle of Torrance Camp of Royal Neighbors will sponsor a bazaar at the Woman's Club house the afternoon and evening of Oct. 27. Club rooms will be open at 1 p.m. for inspection of sales articles and for purchases.

Mrs. Mary Baker, general chairman of the bazaar will be assisted by Mmes. Sophia Duncan, Rosy Shepherd, Lillian Nelson, Juanita McNew, Stelma Norris and Angeleine Disario.

Fancy work, baked goods, and miscellany will be offered. Featured article will be the painting by member Mary Baker, artist of the Seal Beach Art Club. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Baker, Torrance.

Evening Cards

The regular monthly card party will be held starting at 8:15 p.m. Prizes will be awarded high scores and a door prize will be given. Mrs. Velma Scanlon will be hostess, assisted by Mmes. Hazel Hutton and Myra Snow.

Winners Announced by Ballet Company

South Bay Torrance Youth Ballet Company selected two winners at its recent third annual Scholarship Award Contest. Terry Andow, 12, of Gardena and Terry Ryland, 14, of Rolling Hills were chosen on the merits of their original choreography and classical ballet technique.

Both of the girls will receive a scholarship to a major ballet company of their choice, either in San Francisco or New York. Thirty-two of the local ballet company's most promising dancers entered the contest.

This was the second consecutive win for Terry Andow, one of the youngest members of the group.

Judging the contest were Ernest Belcher and Arlee Higbee. Belcher is the father of Marge Champion of the Marge and Gower, Champion dance team. He is also the teacher of ballerinas Maria and Marjorie Tallchief.

Arlee Higbee, ballet teacher, is presently conducting her own school of Ballet in Costa Mesa. The South Bay Torrance Youth Ballet Company is under the direction of Miss Phyllis Moore. The dancers were last seen in the Lakewood Philharmonic Association's production of the "Sleeping Beauty." They are now starting rehearsals for the "Les Sylphides" Ballet which will be seen locally in November.

Plan Card Party

St. Catherine's Unit of the Altar Society of St. Peter and Paul parish, Wilmington, will sponsor a public card party Oct. 21 at the school auditorium, 706 Bayview Ave.

Bridge, pinocle, buncos and 500 will be featured, playing to start at 8 p.m. Eugie Lavespers is chairman for the affair.

Use classified Call FA 8-2345

UNITED NATIONS will be the theme of the day Oct. 24 when members of the South Bay League of Women Voters hold their membership tea at the PV Art Gallery. Checking plans are members of the hospitality committee (from left) Mmes. Albert Hoffenblum, Lee F. Bower (chairman), Walter Peterson, Donald Brink.

POINTING WITH PRIDE to painting by Mary Baker, which will be among the items on sale at their Tuesday bazaar in the Woman's Clubhouse, are Royal Neighbors Stelma Norris, seated at left, and Mary Chiara, right. Standing are Mary Chiara and Mary Baker, the artist.

WINNING BALLERINAS Terry Ryland and Terry Andow pose with judges Ernest Belcher and Arlee Higbee following South Bay-Torrance Ballet Company's recent contest. The two girls each received a scholarship for further ballet training.