150 Taking UC Chemistry and Physics on TV

More than 150 teachers, engineers, and other science-minded persons are enrolled in University of California Extension correspondence courses offered in conjunction with a television series, "Continental Classroom."

Enrollment figures indicate that 22 percent are students who were enrolled in last semester's program.

Continental Classroom consists of two courses, in physics and chemistry, telecast daily from 6 to 7 a.m. on NBC. UC Extension offers credit instruction in conjunction with both courses.

The two courses "Atomic Age Physics" and "Modern Chemistry" may be seen daily, Monday through Friday.

Enrollment will remain open through Oct. 30. Application may be made to University Extension, University of California, Berkeley 4.

South High Group at College Parley

Four South High School delegates went to meetings of the Los Angeles County Industrial Education Association last week at El Camino College.

Principal John A. Lucas, Assistant Principal Willard Morgan, and teachers Paul Muller and R. William Derricksen attended.

J. Lyman Goldsmith, Los Angeles City Schools, declared social and technical advances are making planning for teaching needs difficult.

Arlington Group, Casimir Unit Meet

The Arlington Elementary Student Council met Friday with the Casimir Elementary Student Council.

Led by president Allen Johnson, 17 Arlingtonians visited a meeting of the Casimir council, which is headed by Christie Woodman.

The groups compared notes on operations and discussed Casimir's "good citizenship" awards. E. A. Giacomelli sponsors Casimir's council. Kaye Rollins advises the Arlington group.

Inflation Costs Family $3903 Over Eight Years

Student Body Signs Brubeck at El Camino

The Dave Brubeck Quartet will perform in the semesterly student-body jazz concert, 8:30 p.m. Saturday, at El Camino College.

Brubeck began his career with local bands in Ingle, Calif. He continued at the College of the Pacific as a music major.

The Brubeck Octet formed the basis for the quartet. When Paul Desmond joined the musicians in 1951, the renowned quartet was formed.

Starting with tours of the United States, Brubeck's group has gone on world tours.

Last year the group played in most areas of Europe and the Middle East on a four-month tour.

Brubeck is continually in demand for music festivals and college concerts.

YMCA PLANS CLASSES TO AID READING

Youngsters now may improve their reading at the Torrance YMCA, according to Douglas Cannon, program secretary.

Reading clubs have been planned for boys and girls desiring remedial, developmental, or speed reading.

A certified instructor has been obtained from the Kendall Reading Center to begin classes Nov. 2.

Free testing and consultation is available to parents and children. Appointments for Oct. 27 and 29 may be made by calling the YMCA office.

Two clubs of seven children each will meet three days a week. A fee will be charged for instruction and materials.
