

BRIDGE BRUNCH—Members of the Torrance Junior Woman's Club (left) seated, Mmes. Andrew Acampora, John C. Warwick Jr., A. R. Felando Jr., Douglas Baldwin and Charles Briner, standing, met recently at the home of Mrs. Felando to make final plans for their joint bridge and brunch party with the Woman's Club. The social event will be held Nov. 5 at the Polynesian Restaurant.

Woman's Clubs Plan Joint Bridge Brunch

The Torrance Junior Woman's Club and Senior Woman's Club will hold a joint Bridge Brunch, Nov. 5, from 10:30 a.m. to 1 p.m. at the Polynesian Restaurant. A fashion show of hats will be furnished by the Madhatter in the Hollywood Riviera and modeled by members of the two clubs. The Juniors will use its portion of the proceeds to go toward the CARE School Kits for South

Viet Nam. The school kits are part of a two year project undertaken by the General Federation of Women's Clubs. There are 30,000 children in Viet Nam who must be furnished with these kits in order to be able to attend school. One dollar will buy a kit for one child. The goal of the Junior club is $200. Completing the plans for the brunch are Mmes. Andrew Acampora from Seniors; Lee Clotworthy, Junior bridge chairman; A. R. Felando Jr., Junior ways and means; Charles Briner and Charles Bennett. Modeling the hats from the Seniors will be Mmes. Sid Gans, Andrew Acampora and A. L. Pyeatt; from the Juniors will be Mmes. Joseph Boylan, Edward Plehal, Charles Briner, Don Carlson and Charles Bennett, who will direct the modeling.

Carol Bauer and Duane Brown Wed in Inglewood Church

Crenshaw Christian church was the setting for the Sunday afternoon wedding of Miss Carol Ann Bauer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert F. Bauer of Gardena, and Duane Douglas Brown, son of Mrs. Vernita Brown, 2086 Milldalebrook Rd., Torrance. Rev. Joseph Applegate officiated at the double ring service.

The bride wore a gown of white lace and tulle, styled with long sleeved bodice and Chantilly lace collar and overskirt, beneath which were tiers of white tulle ruffles. She carried a cascade of white roses with white spider mums and stephanotis blossoms on a white Bible. Mrs. Marilyn Weiler, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. Her gown was of pale rose satin and she carried a cascade of rust spider mums with bronze sea oats.

Four Bridesmaids Bridesmaids were the Misses Kathy Weiler, Patricia Stewart, Violet Loar, and Mrs. Norma De Fosse. Their matching gowns were of pale, green satin. They carried cascade bouquets of yellow spider mums. An Imamoto served as best man and ushers were James Brown, James Collender, Jerry Brown and Gerald Daly. Little Teri Mullen was flower girl and Mark Weiler, ring bearer. The bride's mother wore a mauve pink lace gown with satin trim, for her daughter's wedding. The groom's mother wore egg shell white brocade. Reception was held at the

Executive Board Meet Announced

The Executive Board of Marina District 18 CFWC will meet Nov. 6th at the Lawndale Woman's Club, 14701 Burin Ave., Lawndale. Reservations may be obtained by contacting Mrs. Emmett King, FR 5-1706 or Mrs. Clinton V. Hill, EX 5-4728 before Nov. 2. Luncheon will be followed by president's and chairman's workshops.

MONTHLY BAKE SALE

St. Monica's Guild will hold its monthly bake sale the morning of Nov. 8 at St. Philomena Church, 21900 Main St. Mrs. Bill Hopkins will be in charge.

First Evening Council Held by CFWC Clubs

The first Marina District evening Council of California Federation of Women's Club met in Pacific Palisades Wednesday evening. Speakers for the evening were Mrs. Arthur Crom and Dr. Lillian Chao. Mrs. Crom is General Federation Community Improvement Chairman at present, and is a past Junior state president in California and a past national Junior president. Her topic was on pornographic literature. Dr. Chao is professor of comparative languages at the National University at Taiwan, Formosa, and was a speaker at the International Federation Convention in Manila.

Attending the meeting from Torrance were Mmes. J. W. Thuss, Senior Woman's Club president; Joseph Bay, 1st vice-president and Federation chairman; Lee A. McCoy, District Federation Director; and Kenneth Boulter, president of the Torrance Junior Woman's Club.

Torrance BPW Plans Annual Fashion Event

Torrance Business and Professional Woman's Club has named the committee to plan their annual fashion show Nov. 16 at the Club Alondra.

Moore's Women's Wear, Torrance, and Bernard's Men's Wear, Hollywood Riviera, will furnish the fall and winter styles to be modeled. On the show committee are: Mmes. Robert Beck, Harold Massey, Ralph Moore, Bernard Lee, Henry Burke, Nina Womack, Jean Claussen, and Helen Rogers. The group met Oct. 21 in the home of Mrs. Moore, 1908 Martina Ave., to discuss their plans.

Fur Fashion Show Planned

A Fur Fashion Show will be presented at the Oct. 26 conference of the Marina District California Federation of Women's Clubs, junior membership, announces Mrs. Edward F. Collins, first vice president. The conference will be held at the El Segundo Woman's Club with results of the years philanthropy vote announced by Mrs. John H. Bach, district chairman.

'Memory' Fashion Show Scheduled

St. Philomena's Woman's Council will hold a Memory Melody fashion show Nov. 12 at 8 p.m. at the Parish Hall, 21900 Main St. Tickets for the event may be obtained at the door. Mrs. Dick Keife is chairman of the show. Members of the council will model.

College Club to Occidental

Members of the South Bay and Peninsula area of Occidental College Women's club will go to the campus Nov. 6 at 1:30 p.m., to hear Dr. Tyrus G. Harmsen, librarian speak on "The History and Development of Occidental College Library." Dr. Harmsen, a graduate of Stanford University and the University of Michigan School of Library Science was in charge of manuscripts at Huntington library for ten years before coming to Occidental. After the meeting in Freeman lounge, interested parents may visit the library where the Braun room and other special features and collections will be shown. Tea Social A tea and social hour with Dean Mary Laing Swift and Mrs.

Special Hostesses Announced

Mrs. Dean Sears and Mrs. W. I. Laughon have been named as the special Torrance hostesses for this week's fashion shows at the Plush Horse restaurant.

The series of fashion events inaugurated recently will honor an area community each week. Bridgt, luncheon, cocktails and conversation will be included in the Tuesday evening and Friday afternoon get-together in the Devonshire room.

The special hostesses will introduce women who come alone. Groups are also welcome.

Mothers of Twins Set Date for Cocktail Party

South Bay Mothers of Twins Club has completed plans for its annual Roaring 20's cocktail party, Nov. 7 at 9 p.m., at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dick White of Hollywood Riviera, Chairmen of the event are Mmes. Ron Strawn, Ralph Galde, and Bob Jackson. Committee Chairmen are Mmes. Theodore Heitzman, entertainment; Richard Cassell and Martin Kinery, food; Robert Carlisle, beverages; and H. Eric Jones, decorations.

The main attraction of the evening will be a skit entitled, "Roaring 20's Mock Wedding," written and directed by Mrs. Frank Carroll. The skit will feature Ellis Meyers as the minister and Mrs. White as the soloist. Another feature will be a barber shop quartet; members are Gordon Anderson, Ron Strawn, Ellis Meyers, and Frank Carroll. Club members, Mmes. Gordon Anderson, Dick White, Dave Wesson, and Frank Carroll are practicing for the Charleston Chorus Line.

A player piano with group singing is planned, and Howard Brophy is providing tape-recorded music for dancing. Prizes will be awarded to the woman most resembling the "It" girl of the period, the man who might have been the matinee idol of the 20's, and the woman or man with the most original or unusual costume.

Harmsen presiding at the tea table will follow. Mrs. James McMillen, Torrance and Mrs. Kenneth Deets, San Pedro are arranging transportation. Anyone interested in attending is urged to call.

Jacqueline Brand United in Marriage

Gowned in bridal white silk organza and imported lace embroidered with seed pearls and iridescent sequins, Miss Jacqueline Brand exchanged marriage vows Saturday with Anthony Di Mattio. Her gown was styled with chapel train, and her fingertip veil fell from a crown of seed pearls and iridescent sequins. The bridal bouquet was of roses, centered with white orchids. Miss Donna Isbell was maid of honor in a full skirted shrimp pink dress with bell sleeves. She carried a nosegay bouquet of shrimp and yellow glads. Bridesmaids, Miss Sharon Neely and Mrs. Joan Krause, wore gowns to match that of the honor maid. They carried nosegays of shrimp colored glads. Robert Krause served the groom as best man and ushers were Ronald Soulis and Thomas Mathewson. Rev. Thomas Glenn officiated at the service in Nativity Catholic church. A wedding reception followed at the Torrance labor hall. Miss Donna Robinette, a cousin, was guest book registrar. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Everett Wood, 829 Elm Ave. The groom's parents,

Mr. and Mrs. Dominic Di Mattio, live in Erie, Penn. The groom has been living at 17220 Grevilla Ave., Lawndale. A 1957 graduate of Torrance high school, the bride is employed as an x-ray technician at Riviera hospital. The groom was educated in Pennsylvania schools and attended the University of Southern California. He is a chemical engineer at General Petroleum Corp. Out of town guests coming for the wedding included the groom's parents and his brother, William Di Mattio and Mrs. Di Mattio of Erie.

Woman of Year to Be Chosen

Hollypark B'nai B'rith Women will choose a "woman of the year" tonight at their 7:30 p.m. all-membership soiree at the Western Ave. golf course, 12009 Western Ave. Prospective members of the group are also invited. Other special entertainment will be featured and a special guest will be Mrs. Bert Stone, district president of B'nai B'rith Women.

for and about Women

Betty Laurent for Mary Neth, Woman's Editor

Telephone FAirfax 8-2345

PAMELA PLUSH DAY—Although last Friday was the fashion show date for the Hollywood Riviera ladies, this charming group of young Torrance ladies simply had to visit the Plush Horse to see the style showing by Liljans. Anticipating Torrance Day (tomorrow) by one week are (seated, left to right) Mmes. R. J. De Young, Robert Patton, Dean Marsh and Richard De Young. Making them welcome as official hostess for Hollywood Riviera is (standing) Mrs. Tom Birchfield.

Fashion Show to Have Parisian Theme

The Woman's Auxiliary of St. Andrew's Episcopal Church will present its annual fashion show this evening at 8 p.m. at the YWCA, 2320 W. Carson St.

Decorations have been planned to depict the theme "Echoes from Paris." Mrs. Alan Moore will act as narrator for the show.

Fashions from Moore's Dress Shop will be modeled by Mmes. Thomas Daere, Robert Hollister, Robert Leech, J. Parke Montague, D. A. Murphy, Russell Thornberg and James Wilkes.

Children's and teenage clothes from Millican's Variety Shop will be shown by Robin Bingham, Judy Mitoma, Jackie Bundy, Peggy Post and Keith Goddard.

The highlight of the evening will be a complete wedding scene by the Candle-Lite Gown Shoppe. The following models Sharon Ricci, Gail Hyde, Jeannie Sprout, Mardell Clayton, Jackie Bundy and Mrs. Phyllis Post will complete the bridal party.

Dessert will be served during intermission by waitresses Kathy Faller, Kathy Halliwell, Ann Heinlein, Nancy Schinley, Susan Sloan, Louise Whisman, Jean Doig, Christine Schadt who will be dressed in appropriate French costumes. Door prizes will be awarded. Tickets may be obtained from guild members or at the door.

League of Voters to Discuss Foreign Policy

United States Foreign Economic Policy will be discussed by the study units of the League of Women Voters of Palos Verdes Estates Nov. 3, and 4th.

Mrs. William Kingsley, chairman of the Foreign Policy committee will be assisted by Mmes. Lee Bower, William Todd, Bryan Hardwick, Albert Hoffenblum, Victor White and Ralph Wuerker, and Miss Julia Kelly.

The time and meeting places are 10 a.m., Nov. 3rd, Mrs. John Hummer, 2525 Via La Selva, Palos Verdes Estates; 8 p.m., Nov. 3rd, Mrs. Allen Curtis, 206 Calle de Arboles, Redondo Beach; 10 a.m., Nov. 4th, Mrs. Thomas Kenney, 2304 Via Pinale, Palos Verdes Estates; 8 p.m., Nov. 4th, Mrs. A. M. Angel, 4463 Silver Saddle Lane, Rolling Hills.

A new unit has been added Monday afternoons to answer the need of members whose children attend double session in school. It will be from 12:30 p.m. to 2:30 p.m., Nov. 2nd at the home of Mrs. John Crowther, 26801 Rolling Hills Road, Rolling Hills.

Use classified ads for quick results. Phone FA 8-2345.

MRS. DUANE DOUGLAS BROWN nee Carol Ann Bauer Portrait by L. W. Rayworth and Son

MRS. ANTHONY DI MATTIO Saturday Bride Photo by Seeman

ECHOES FROM PARIS—Three mademoiselles (left) Kathy Faller, Susan Sloan and Louise Whisman pose in the pert French caps and aprons they will don as waitresses at the St. An-