A record number of out-of-town dealers and manufacturers are expected to be on hand to preview more than 200 house trailers, travel trailers, and accessories, said John O'Connor, executive director of the sponsoring Trailer Coach Association.

Show chairmen Tom Collier and John C. Videen announced that Great Western Exhibit Center with a new building allowing an additional 33,000 square feet of exhibit space over 1959 again will house the exposition.

Dates for the Trailer Life Show will be Monday, Jan. 25, through Sunday, Jan. 31.

Dealer dates will be Monday through Wednesday, with show hours scheduled 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. Monday and Tuesday and 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. Wednesday.

Public days will be Thursday through Sunday, with hours scheduled daily noon to 11 p.m.

TED GREEN

Ted Green Heads Paul's Chevrolet

Ted Green, general manager and vice president of Paul's Chevrolet, Inc., for the past three years, has been named president by the firm's directors.

Green, whose appointment is effective at once, took the place of the company founder, the late Paul D. Loranger. He said management policies and personnel will remain the same.

The dealership is one of the fastest growing in the area, with main offices, service department, and show rooms at 1640 Cabrillo Ave. and a large used - car lot in Lomita.

It soon will open a third location on Hawthorne Blvd. at Emerald St.

Club to Discuss Economic Policy
