Dear Used Car Buyer: "You Get Only What You Pay For"

An expression that is certainly true—but there is an exception to every rule. When you can buy a really good used car within a few dollars of dealer wholesale, or way below the average current retail price, this is an exception! Why?—Because we are primarily a retail store for new Imported Cars and set up to wholesale our trade-ins. However, if we can retail our trades for ANYTHING over wholesale we are better off, and by passing the savings on to you—you are better off also.
