Miss Waddingham Will Debut in Piano Recital

In this age of the arm-chair musician, dependent upon the mass media, Carolyn Waddingham, 16-year-old South High senior, will take her place among the entertainers Saturday when she makes her piano debut at a recital in the Three Arts Studio, Hollywood.

Carolyn, a charmer with an alert sensitivity, has been studying piano since she was six. "I use to pretend that I was playing the piano on the window sill when I was a child," she recalls. "I don't have any musicians in my family, but when my parents realized how much I loved music, I started to take lessons."

At her recital Saturday, she will show her virtuosity in selections from Mozart, Grieg, Schumann, Debussy, Bach, and Gershwin. The latter three, together with Chopin, are her favorite composers.

However, Carolyn, despite her golden tresses, could not be termed a long-hair. She digs rock and roll, rhythm and blues, and loves to sing the blues in her rich alto.

Nor is she a novice in the thespian arts. Last summer she appeared in a road show of Cole Porter's "Out of This World." She has been seen in at least 50 USO shows, and is now rehearsing the role of Flory in "And Never Been Kissed" for production in January.

Born in Long Beach, Carolyn moved with her family to Eugene, Ore., when she was a year old. Eight years ago they returned to California and settled in Torrance.

After graduating from South High this spring, Carolyn hopes to attend De Pauw University in Greencastle, Ind. and major in piano and public-school music.

Bowling News

A.B.C. Bowling Supply tops the Tuesday night Ladies Handicap, riding in the number one slot 3 1/2 games over Vel's Ford and Millican's Variety. Torrance Flower Shop trails in third followed by American Quick Silver, George's Linoleum and Souder Plumbing. Individual series high held by Flower Shop kegler, J. Devenish, racking up a whopping 541&87-628 set as league leading A.B.C. Bowling ten-pin addict Fran Mora holds down high game honors with her blistering 254&10-264 pitch.

The first division of the Tuesday night 1/2 Stars lead by the Joel's Bowling Shirt mob, 2 games over second spot holders, Lane & Roderick. Pfaff rides in third, followed by A & W Root Beer and Torrance Van. Soderstrom Ford pounded out the individual series topper, connecting his three game set for a potent 627&60-687 on the scoreboard while R. Wilcox latched onto game high.
