South High Debaters Win Awards in California League

South High School orators at- tended the Southern California Debate League Tournament at North High School recently. Two out of three teams won awards. The team of John Brooks and Doug Forrester won medals and Jim Hawkins and Richard Jarman won certificates of excellence. Certificates of excellence were given to Doug Forrester (original oratory), Mike Scott (original oratory), Beverly Thomas (original oratory), Judi Tye (poetry oratory), Winkie Gilbert (poetry reading), Raleigh Schear (humorous interpretation), Frances Simmons (humorous interpretation), Bill Doty (dramatic interpretation), Rickie Robbins (dramatic interpretation), and Virginia Snyder (dramatic interpretation). Sixteen winners captured 19 awards. Bringing home most honors was John Brooks. Doug Forrester came in second. Both are sophomores. South High came in third of the 15 schools.

CHAIRMAN—Mrs. Robert M. Devitt, named chairman of GOP finance committee in 18th district, is congratulated by Charles E. Soderstrom, chairman of county organization.

GOP Committee Names Leader of Finance Unit

Mrs. Robert M. Devitt of Long Beach, wife of an attorney, this week was named chairman of the 18th Congressional District of the Republican finance committee. Charles E. Soderstrom, county chairman, said this is the first time a woman has been selected for the post. Mrs. Devitt will be in charge of the $30,000 "Elephant Hunt," a drive to raise money from party members for the 1960 elections. The drive, the first of its kind in the area, will attempt to reach each party member either by mail or in person and solicit memberships. This week, is designed to reach 50,000 persons. It will continue through December. The campaign, which starts

Marines Plan 'Toys for Tots' Square Dance

Two bands, two MCs, and 20 callers will highlight the Marine Corps Reserve "Toys for Tots" Square Dance, Sunday, Nov. 29, at the Long Beach Municipal Auditorium. The local Gadabouts and other dance clubs from throughout the Southland will entertain nearly 10,000 spectators and dancers at the big send-off for the Marines 12th annual "Toys for Tots" collection. Area Marine Reserve units: 5th Comm. Co., Long Beach; 15th Rifle Co., Seal Beach; and Marine Air Reserves, Los Alamitos, will continue the drive through Dec. 18 to ensure a Christmas for less fortunate children of Long Beach and Orange County. Admission to the spectacle is one new toy.
