Pi Phi Chapter Installs Pledges

The Abundant Life was the theme at the Pi Phi Chapter, Beta Sigma Phi pledge ritual banquet Tuesday evening at Lococos Restaurant, Manhattan Beach.

Mrs. Charles Fitzpatrick was chairman. The banquet table was decorated with horns containing fruits and vegetables of the harvest season, set against a background of orange streamers.

Orange tapers lit the room as guests arrived. Programs were of colored paper leaves tied with gold ribbon. Smaller paper leaves on tiny pine cones served as place-cards.

Mrs. Don Bromley delivered the invocation. A business meeting, prior to the pledge ritual, was conducted by the president, Mrs. Ernest Sommerville. Members were given their work assignments for the rummage sale to be held Saturday, at 5825 S. Broadway, Los Angeles, by the ways-and-means chairman, Mrs. Robert Todd.

Mrs. Bill Garrison, program chairman, announced final plans for a theater party. Members will attend the Friday evening performance of "Cat on a Hot Tin Roof" at the Chapel Theater, Redondo Beach.

Mrs. Jim Meador, social chairman, announced that the Christmas party will be held Dec. 15 at the home of Jene Mady, Los Alamitos.

The pledge ritual was conducted by Mrs. Sommerville, assisted by Mrs. Todd and Mrs. Bromley. Mrs. Fitzpatrick and Mrs. Joe Seula escorted pledges, Mrs. Earl Hennis and Mrs. Rodney Barker, to the pledge table.
