Paper-Box Firm Announces Key Men for Factory Here

Announcement of key appointments and transfers of personnel to staff the Torrance and Phoenix box plants of the Hinde and Dauch division of West Virginia Pulp and Paper Company recently was made by Charles D. Sparks, regional manager, Chicago. The Torrance factory will be in production by Jan. 4. Roy E. Jury has been named district sales manager for the Torrance plant. In this capacity he will direct sales in and around Los Angeles. He also will assume temporary responsibility for sales at the Phoenix plant.

Hinde & Dauch, one of the nation's leading producers of corrugated boxes and interior packing materials, operates 15 other plants throughout the East, Midwest, and South from headquarters in Sandusky, Ohio.

Appointed district production manager at Torrance was Frederick J. Bauer. He has a background of 13 years' experience in corrugated production positions and for the past three years has been plant superintendent for a leading corrugated manufacturer. Sid B. Carmine, now H&D's M/R board sales representative on the West Coast, has been named director of M/R board sales. He will direct the sales of this moisture-resistant corrugated material throughout the highly productive fruit and produce growing regions of California.

Robert Huston and Douglas Stier have joined H&D as sales representatives at Torrance. Huston has a background of eight years as a salesman for leading paper converters. Stier has spent the past six years in sales capacities with two leading corrugated manufacturers.

The position of sales service supervisor at Torrance will be filled by Bruce Harralson who is transferring from Hinde & Dauch's Kansas City plant. Bruce joined H&D in 1955 and most recently served as sales service supervisor at Kansas City. Gerald Kohut will be supervisor of order estimating here. He is transferring from H&D's St. Louis plant where he held the same position.

George Rustige has been named laboratory manager. He joined H&D in 1952 and most recently was laboratory manager at the St. Louis plant.
