VIKINGS HAND THS 58-52 CASABA LOSS

By John Whitacre

 Torrance High's Tartar basketballers dropped their second straight thriller within two days, when they lost to Santa Monica Friday night 58-52 on the latter court.

Coach Will Boerger's crew also dropped a cliff hanger Wednesday night 64-63 at Redondo after defeating Bellflower 49-37 on their home court Tuesday.

In Friday night's game it was neck and neck all the way until Samohi pulled away late in the third quarter with their fast breaking attack killing the Tartars chances.

Bob Weister a junior forward for the Tartar five led both teams in scoring with 16 points, close behind were Bob Taylor and Cliff Goodrich of Santa Monica who each had 12.

Other scorers for THS were Bill Reinert with 11, Bill Roberts and Lynn Keller nine and eight respectively, and Howard Taylor, Russ Roberts and Bill Williams who all had two.

Next Wednesday the local team travels to Aviation to compete in the seventh annual Pacific Shores Tournament.

THS's first opponent will be defending CIF champs the Glendale Dyanimeters. Game time is scheduled for 5:30 and after that another local team North High meets Aviation at eight.

Glendale is again favored to be one of the top teams in the CIF and are favored to capture the Annual South Bay Tournament, but the dyanimeters only have one returning letterman from last years 27-1 won last record and he is an All-Foothill League player Bill Doss who stands 6-6 and averaged 14 points per game last year on a star studded squad.

South Torrance takes on Mira Costa last years tourney winner at 8:30 in the Micohi gym and are lead by 6-8 Joe Austin who was an All-Crescent League pick last year.

Coliseum Report on Bums

The formal report of the Coliseum Commission's baseball committee, headed by William Shea on the Dodger's contract for next season will be submitted to the Coliseum Commission next week, at which time details of the contract will be revealed.

Members of the Commission, its baseball committee, legal counsel and Dodger officials met in Supervisor Kenneth Hahn's office for a discussion of contract terms and other items.

Attending the meeting were Shea, Councilwoman Rosalind Wyman, Supervisor Hahn, Commission President Frode Kiltofte and Commissioner A. E. England, Deputy City Attorney Ralph Eubank, and B. J. "Buzzie" Bavasi, Dodger vice president, and William H. Nicholas, Coliseum manager.

At the meeting, it was indicated that next year's rental receipts to be paid the Coliseum Commission are expected to increase to over $900,000 — producing a net revenue of at least $700,000. This amount is double that of the current year.

"This is a conservative figure since it assumes that the Dodgers, Rams, USC, and UCLA, will draw the same crowds as this year. I predict the final figure will be even higher," Supervisor Hahn declared.

He pointed out that the increase in next year's revenue to the Coliseum Commission for the Coliseum will come from the Dodger's new contract, under which they will pay the Commission 10 percent of gross receipts for admission and relinquish concession receipts.

Another factor will be the increased percentage of admissions paid by the Rams, USC, and UCLA, — up to 10 percent from five.

Supervisor Hahn stated that the Commission has agreed to consider unusual and extraordinary expenses incurred by the Dodgers during the past year in negotiating the contract for next year.

"I think it is only fair that the Coliseum Commission treat the Dodgers just the same as any other organization which uses the Coliseum. Expenses which the Commission pays for others should be met for the Dodgers. Expenditures which the Dodgers make which actually benefit the Coliseum should be considered. Other expenses should be paid entirely by the Dodgers," Supervisor Hahn continued.

He pointed out that as a result of the new contract with the Dodgers, the Commission will receive a straight 10 percent of the admissions, plus the concessions.

Supervisor Hahn added that the new contract with the Dodgers was made possible by the firm, forthright legal opinion issued by County Counsel Harold W. Kennedy that the Dodgers were obligated to pay 10 percent of the gate receipts in accordance with the original contract when they were granted the right to play in the Coliseum for two years, with the increased rental in effect for any subsequent years.

Bavasi submitted the following list of expenses to Shea which he requested the Commission to consider paying under the new contract:

Maintenance and care of grounds (1/2 actual cost) $30,000

Sweepers including wash-rooms (1/2 actual cost) $46,000

Rubbish removal (concession debris) $6,000

Clay, seed, top-soil, etc. $3,000

Lamp replacement $4,000

Utilities $15,000

Washroom supplies $5,000

Remove, install and store fences $20,000

Press box feeding $10,000

Alterations—ticket booths, etc. $1,500

Total	$140,000
It was agreed that possible consideration of the cost of lights, drainage and cushions would be negotiated administratively by Nicholas, Bavasi and Eubank.
The Dodgers will be required to bear all other expenses in-
