

A. W. Taylor Completes 25 Years at Union Carbide Company Here

A. W. Taylor recently reached a quarter-century with Union Carbide Chemicals Co. He has been shift superintendent for the chemical division since its start here in 1934.

Taylor began with Carbide in 1934 as an operator in the South Charleston, W. Va., plant. After experience in several phases of the operation, he was promoted to shift foreman in 1947. Eight years later, he was transferred to the Torrance plant as shift superintendent.

He and his wife Lillian have three daughters, Eleanore, Carolyn, and Lilli. Eleanore and
