All-Torrance Audience to Attend 'Queen for a Day' Show Dec. 22

Torrance will be the first city honored by TV's "Queen for a Day," according to the sponsoring Torrance Chamber of Commerce. All Torrance women may attend.

J. H. Paget, president, said the show will be titled "A Christmas Salute to Torrance" and will take place Tuesday, Dec. 22, at the Moulin Rouge, 6230 Sunset Blvd., Hollywood. Torrance was the first city selected.

Free tickets are available at the Chamber of Commerce, office located in the old City Hall Bldg., 1511 Cravens Ave. No phone orders will be accepted, Paget said.

and tickets will be on a first-come basis. Torrance residents will make up the entire audience, and 1000 tickets are available.

Chamber officials are encouraging women's civic groups to participate in the event, the first in a new series viewed by more than 10,000,000 persons nationally. Contestants will be selected from the audience of Torrance women. Prizes for the queen will be "all her Christmas shopping," according to the star of the show Jack Bailey. The average value of merchandise each queen receives is $3500, he said.

Arrangements for bus transportation have been made with the Torrance municipal bus line, with reservations for the first 200 available at the Chamber office.

Buses will leave from behind the civic center at 10 a.m., arriving in Hollywood at 11. Doors open at 11:15 a.m. and shut at 12:15.

A buffet luncheon will be served.

A table will be reserved for Torrance civic officials and will receive special plugs during the program.
