Barbara Laskey Bride of Gary E. Swanson

In a double-ring ceremony Saturday at St. Lawrence Martyr Catholic Church, Miss Barbara Jeanne Laskey became the bride of Gary E. Swanson. The Rev. Charles Ara performed the ceremony in front of an altar decorated with white carnations.

The new Mrs. Swanson is the niece of Mr. and Mrs. Edward M. Laskey, 3702 W. 224 St. Her husband's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Robert Swanson of 113 N. Lucia Ave., Redondo Beach.

The bride-elect, given in marriage by her uncle, wore a gown of white lace over nylon net. A fingertip veil secured her pearl crown and she carried a bouquet of white gardenias and lilies of the valley offset by a pearl trim.

Carol Swanson, sister of the bride, served as maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Dolores Vargo and Carol Hill. All were attired in pale blue satin. Miss Swanson carried a bouquet of pink and white roses and the bridesmaids carried yellow roses.

Mrs. Laskey, aunt of the bride, was in beige with beige accessories. The bridegroom's mother chose a rose - brown lace with matching accessories.

Cindy Gall Adams, dressed in blue and white organdy, was flower girl; Peter John Laskey was her cousin's ring bearer.

Don Swanson acted as best man. Ushers were John Creighton and Ken Slusher.

Following the service, the new couple welcomed guests to a reception in the parish hall.

Mrs. Swanson is a graduate of Enunuciation High School, Buffalo, N.Y., and is employed by Bank of America, Redondo Beach. Her husband, a graduate of Redondo Beach High School, is now with the Stars Construction Co.

After a brief wedding trip to Palm Springs and Las Vegas, the newlyweds are now residing in Torrance.

The Torrance Y-Wives are extending an invitation to interested persons in the community to be guests of the club at a special lecture on bio-dynamics Tuesday.

Guest speaker at the meeting will be Dr. Verill Williams, director of the Bio-Dynamics Institute.

According to Mrs. Johnson Lofland, president of the group, bio-dynamics is a method of treatment that repositions the framework and connected tissues of the body and virtually rescues it into a more youthful and healthy life.

She added that one needs more that crash exercise programs and debilitating diets in order to make the body a fortress against disease.

The event will be held at 10:30 a.m. at the Torrance YWCA, 2820 W. Carson St.

Delta Tau Delta to Meet
The Delta Tau Delta chapter of the Delphian Society will meet Jan. 21 at 4020 Pacific Coast Hwy.

Mrs. Rose Craig Is Nominated for City's Woman of the Year

WOMAN OF THE YEAR CANDIDATE
... at Work

Winning Letter

Woman's Editor
Torrance Press:

Dear Editor,

I would like to nominate Mrs. Rose Craig as Woman of the Year.

I am of the opinion that she is a most worthy nominee due to her various activities and especially her honest efforts in taking part in fund raising campaigns for charitable organizations, and her civic activities.

Mrs. Craig has worked night and day for the betterment of the city of Torrance and in the interest and behalf of all her fellow citizens.

In other words... she extends herself beyond the call of duty.

She also is a wonderful mother, grandmother, and friend to all, and especially to anyone in need. There are many other aspects and tributes that could be added.

Hopefully Yours,
Mrs. Alexander Majack

Mrs. Rose Craig, business woman, wife, grandmother, and baby-sitter par excellence is this week's candidate for the Torrance Woman of the Year award.

Seated behind her desk at Rose Craig Realtors, Lomita, talking on the telephone or interviewing a prospective client, Mrs. Craig gives one the impression of a merry grandmother, more concerned with wet feet or the roast in the oven than the sale of acres.

Perhaps it is this charm that causes her to be the successful business woman she is. "I enjoy people," she smiles. "That's why I like my work. And it's just fascinating to work in such a fast growing area."

"I'm particularly happy when a person I've helped in the past returns. It shows they were satisfied," she adds.

Mrs. Craig comes by the title of grandmother honestly. Her
