SCORES REPORTING OF SCHOOL ROW

Just who is this 25-year-old paragon of wisdom and virtue who presumes to advise men much older and more experienced in matters of education?

I think it is ridiculous that you even report the silly antics of this irresponsible, callow youth. After all, older heads remain quiet in this affair. Let's ask their opinion; let's find out what the professionals have to say about it.

Now I know neither Dr. Hull nor this strapping who has the nerve to "demand" of his elders, but I do know this: people should be respectful to their elders and keep a civil tongue in their heads at all times.

Do you realize you should encourage insolent youth when your newspaper carries stories about their insults to older people?

Why don't you report what Dr. Hull has to say about this nonsense?

I would appreciate an answer from you. (Signed) (Miss) LOUISE GRACE STEDMAN, 8021 Torrance Blvd.

(Dr. Hull so far has had nothing to say about it.—Ed.)

King Asks End of Pensioners' Earning Limit

Rep. Cecil R. King has introduced a bill in the House of Representatives to remove the limit on what Social Security pensioners may earn without being penalized and remove other inequities in the program which he termed as unwise and unfair.

This legislation would:

1. Remove the $1200 limit on earned income.
2. Provide earlier retirement at reduced benefits for men at age 62 and for women at age 60.
3. Eliminate the requirement that an individual must have attained age 50 in order to be eligible for disability benefits.
4. Provide a special tax credit against Social Security taxes to employers who employ individuals who are more than 45 years of age.

King said the elderly are becoming one of America's class of forgotten citizens.

British Author to Lecture Here

A series of lectures on Shakespeare will be given by Robert Speaight, British actor and author, who is here as guest professor and artist in residence at Immaculate Heart College.

Speaight will lecture on "King Lear" before the Southern California Drama Teachers Association Feb. 8, at the University of Southern California Feb. 12, at IHC Feb. 13 and at Pomona College Feb. 16.

A distinguished lecturer and commentator, Speaight will direct and star in a production of "King Lear" at Immaculate Heart College, with Kathryn Crosby, known on the screen as Kathryn Grant, playing the feminine lead.

Carol Johnson, Kathleen Taylor Winners of Competition for Torrance Teenage Miss

Carol Faye Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl W. Johnson, 1226 Elm St., has been selected as the Torrance Teenage Miss in the Teenage Miss contest sponsored by the city's Junior Woman's Club, District 18, CFWC.

Placing second in the competition was Kathleen Taylor, daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. John L. Taylor, Rev. Taylor, former pastor of the Torrance Methodist Church, recently transferred to Montebello.

Contestants were judged on the basis of academic standing, youth activities, and personality. Miss Johnson, an A student at Torrance High, is president of the school's California Scholarship Federation, and a member of the Tartar Ladies, the Tri-Hi-Y Club and the Luther League. She is interested in the theater and will be featured in a variety show to be presented by the school's drama department next month.

Upon graduation, Carol plans to study education at college and hopes to teach on the elementary level.

Miss Taylor, also an A student at Torrance High, is senior representative to the student court and active in the California Scholarship Federation and the Tartar Ladies. She too plans to specialize in elementary education.

The Juniors awarded $10 for first prize and $5 for second. Miss Johnson will now compete in the District 18 contest sponsored by the California Federation of Women's Clubs, Junior Membership.
