EXPLAINS CAUSE OF BIFOCAL DISSATISFACTION

A noted eye specialist, writing in the "Journal of Living," claims that the nervousness and headaches suffered by some bifocal wearers are due to the fact that their glasses are not providing comfortable vision at intermediate distances—18 to 50 inches. What is needed, this specialist asserts, is comfortable vision at ALL ranges. Dr. J. M. Soss, optometrist in the Harbor Area for 32 years, concurs with this opinion and states that many of his patients who complained about bifocals are now enjoying great

Douglas Design Engineer Will Take New Post

Charles E. Hedges, Douglas production design engineer 13 years, will take over the post of product-reliability assurance manager at the company's Long Beach division Monday. Hedges came to Southern California following his graduation from the University of Michigan in 1941. He first was employed by Lockheed as a production-design engineer and before joining Douglas served two years in the navy. Hedges has worked on the DC-6 and 7, design of the DC-8 Jetliner, and just prior to his transfer to Long Beach was on loan to the Douglas Torrance facility where he worked on the manufacture of missile motor cases.

Refiners Check Bromine Content

Petroleum refiners in Los Angeles County are adjusting their supplies of gasoline to comply with air pollution control laws, effective July 1. This conclusion was reached by the Air Pollution Control District, which today released its monthly report of the Bromine number ratings of gasolines marketed in the Los Angeles Basin during January. After July 1, all gasolines sold in the Los Angeles Basin must be below the Bromine 30 level.
