Title Company to Show Films at Alter Education Meeting

Title Insurance and Trust Co. will present a color-film series, "Understanding Property," at the Feb. 27 meeting of the salesmen-education program of the Alter Realty Co., Hank Mahler educational chairman, announced today.

The meeting is scheduled for 8:30 a.m. 2305 Torrance Blvd. "Nature of Property," distinguishes the difference between real property and personal property, giving clear definitions of the types of estates in which real property is owned or held.

"How Real Property is Transferred," traces the history of land ownership in California from the occupation by the king of Spain to ranchos and pueblo grants, confirmation of land grants by the American board of commissioners to current ownership. Property transfer by deed, devise, accretion, adverse possession, and foreclosure is fully explained, with an example of each.

The program will be presented by Wayne Pickett, title officer for the Los Angeles firm.

girls is expected from Italy's Shir and Scheonone and Norway's Bjornbakken, according to Coach Lawrence. "The French, Austrians and Swiss also have crack skiers," adds Lawrence, "but we're talking about an ever-changing situation."
In the 80-meter special jumping, the U. S. coach, Lloyd Severud, of Chetek, Wis., believes American boys will acquit themselves well.

"If our jumpers progress as fast this season as they did last, we might just pick up a gold medal. I'll admit this is reaching far out but it could happen."
One of America's top contenders is Gene Kotlarek of Duluth, Minn. This 19-year-old lad was second at last February's Trial Events at Squaw Valley behind Finland's Kalevi Karkinen.
