

First Methodists to Swap Pastors with Venice

The Rev. Donald Lathrop, pastor of First Methodist Church of Venice, will speak at Harbor City-Lomita Methodist Church Sunday, at 9 a.m. 11 a.m. services. The Rev. Clarence Spier, pastor of the church, will be guest speaker in Venice.

Rev. Lathrop served with the Northern Minnesota Methodist Church Conference before transferring to the Southern California-Arizona Conference in 1957 when he was assigned to Venice.

Both pastors will present the vital program of the newly-organized Long Beach District Methodist Union to raise funds for the purchase of new church sites, assist new churches and aid in furnishing new church parsonages.
