Ground to Be Broken Here Sunday for Temple Menorah

An outstanding group of religious and civic leaders will be assembled Sunday at 2 p.m., at the new site of Temple Menorah of the South Bay, to consecrate and break the ground for the new temple, it was announced by George Lewison, president of the temple.

Rabbi Edgar F. Magnin, senior rabbi of the Wilshire Boulevard Temple and dean of West Coast rabbis, will be the guest preacher. Rabbi Mordecai Soloff, rabbi of Temple Israel of Westchester, and president of the Southern California Association of Liberal Rabbis, will pronounce the invocation.

Greetings of the South Bay Ministerial Association will be given by the President, the Rev. Arthur Owens of the St. Andrews Presbyterian Church, Redondo Beach; Jack Skirball, president of the administrative board of the California School of the Hebrew Union College-JIR, will represent this seminary which trains rabbis, and J. Louis Frederick, vice president of the Southern California Council of the Union of American Hebrew Congregations, will represent that organization, the parent body of Reform Jewish congregations in this country. George Olincy has been invited to represent the Jewish Federation-Council of Los Angeles.

Mayora Leroy L. Center of Redondo Beach and Albert Isen of Torrance will represent their municipalities, since the new Temple building will be located in both cities.
