Juniors' Americanism Unit Attends City's Traffic Court

As part of the American program of the Torrance Junior Woman's Club, Mrs. Lee Clotworthy, Americanism chairman, and a group of club members attended the Torrance traffic court Tuesday.

The visit was part of the Traffic Court Program of the American Bar Association sponsored by the General Federation of Women's Clubs to acquaint members with court procedures.

Persons present were given a questionnaire to check the methods of the court against the standards set by the American Bar Association.

Greenthumbers Club Welcome New Member

The Greenthumbers Garden Club welcomed Cora Dunson as a new member at a recent meeting in the home of Mrs. William Fitzgerald.

Members played bingo following the business session. Mrs. William Jung was awarded the grand prize.

University Women Plan Benefit Rummage Sale, Theater Party

The American Association of University Women, Palos Verdes-Rolling Hills Branch, has completed plans for two fund raising events this month.

The first event for the benefit of the fellowships fund will be a pre-Easter rummage sale, March 10 at the House of Rummage in San Pedro.

Mrs. H. C. O'Brien, fellowship's chairman, is in charge; Mrs. Robert W. Burson is supervising volunteer workers and Mrs. Raymond Oddone is sorting chairman.

The association also plans a theater party March 20. Members, and friends will attend the Hampton Players' production of Van Druten's sophisticated comedy, "Old Acquaintance." Reservations may be made with Mrs. O'Brien, FR 5-5853.

Plans for the benefits coincide with the announcement by the fellowships' committee to award $108,500 in fellowships in 1961-62. Fellowships will be open to all women in United States who have their doctorate or who have fulfilled all requirements for the degree except the dissertation, and to women who have achieved professional recognition.

Mrs. John Thuss Presides at Garden Confab

Mrs. John W. Thuss, president of the Torrance Woman's Club, District 18, CFWC, presided at the district garden conference last Friday in El Segundo.

Other Torrance members attending were Mmes. Peter Boonstra, R. E. Moffitt, Rufus Sandstrom, E. S. Stephens, Godfrey Nelson, John C. Warnock Jr., and H. L. Galley.

The group heard annual reports by nine district garden chairmen, introduced by Mrs. Thuss.

Reporting were Mmes. Stewart Rankin, El Segundo; Ted Anderson, Neptune; Virgil Hoar, Inglewood; Fred Carlstad and Alfred Tester, Yonice; G. W. Thrasher, Santa Monica; Charles Bougmont, Redondo Beach; Clarence W. Gilkes, Playa del Rey; and S. H. Anderson, Palms.

Guest speaker at the event was Mrs. C. E. Mitchell, state garden chairman.

Mrs. Mitchell spoke on "A Garden is a Lovely Thing." She urged members to "never lose sight of the spiritual side of gardens." She recalled that the first garden planted was mentioned in Genesis.

Luncheon was served by the host club.

Sisterhood Slates Detective Film

Temple Menorah Sisterhood will sponsor "Father Brown Detective," a British film starring Alec Guinness, Saturday at 8:30 p.m.

The film and the award-winning short, "Faces of Moscow" will be shown at the Temple, 112 1/2 N. Catalina Ave., Redondo Beach.

This is the third in a series of foreign films hosted by Mrs. Donald Finkelstein of Hollywood Riviera and Mrs. Edward London of Rolling Hills. Next film in the series will be the Danish drama, "Day of Wrath," April 2. Tickets may be obtained by calling Mrs. Finkelstein FR 5-0748 or London FR 8-4617.

The Sisterhood also will sponsor a fashion show and luncheon at the Palma Restaurant 1925 W. Carson, March 14 at noon.

The latest spring styles will be shown by professional models. Mrs. Gene Kaufman, president, will preside at the appointment of a nominating committee to recommend a slate of officers for the 1960-61 term of office.

Beau Jardin Club Hears Guest Talk

The Beau Jardin Club welcomed Mrs. Eizo Etow of Elow Nursery in Redondo Beach as guest speaker at a meeting Wednesday.

Mrs. Etow discussed bare root sprigs and soil preparation for spring planting. At a brief business session the group elected its officers for the new year. Mrs. James Stadler will serve as president; Mrs. Don Dorbaugh was elected vice president; Mrs. Fred Worgul is recording secretary.

Mmes. John Beattie and Robert Hill are corresponding secretary and treasurer respectively. Installation will take place March 9.

Clubwomen Plan April Convention

District 18 of the California Federation of Women's Clubs will discuss plans for the district convention Friday at the Torrance Woman's Club, 1422 Englewood Ave. The luncheon meeting will be called to order at 10 a.m.

Mrs. Grant W. Putnam, president, has announced that the convention will be held April 7 and 8 in the Stellite Room of the Hotel Miramar. Mrs. H. E. Moulthrop is convention chairman.

MRS. THOMAS FICHTER JR. ... at Home in Torrance

Doyle-Fichter Nuptials Said at Nativity Church

Miss Diane Doyle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Kent Doyle, 1410 W. 227 St., became the bride of Thomas Fichter Jr., in an afternoon ceremony, Saturday at Nativity Catholic Church. The Rev. Thomas Glenn heard the double-ring rite.

Mr. Fichter is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Fichter, 21924 S. Harvard Blvd.

The bride-elect, escorted to the altar by her father, wore a gown of chantilly lace. A pearl crown secured her fingertip veil and she carried white hyacinths centered with two orchids.

Judy Hanhs was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Evelyn Buringame, Diane Hunter, and Faye Gassett. Cecilia Fichter was junior bridesmaid; Terry Lynn Keoshyian was flower girl. All were attired in ice-blue taffeta.

The mother of the bride was in a printed silk sheath offset by a floral hat. Mrs. Fichter wore dusty rose with matching accessories.

Ronald Fichter was best man. Robert Hanhs, John Blesser, and George Prudue ushered.

Following a reception in the parish hall the young couple were guests of honor at a buffet dinner at the home of the bridegroom's parents.

The new Mrs. Fichter was a graduate from Torrance High School with the class of '59. Her husband attended Serra High School and is now with the U.S. Marine Corps.

After a honeymoon to Lake Arrowhead the newlyweds will be at home at 1642 1/2 W. 226 St.
