Craft Classes for Adults, Children Start This Month

New craft classes for children and adults are slated to begin this month at the Torrance Arts and Crafts Center, 22730 Lupine Dr., it was announced by Erika Muhl, director.

For children classes meet at 9:30 a.m.—11 a.m. for 6-9-year-olds and 9 through 12 years starting March 19.

Children's puppet classes will begin March 19 at 1 p.m. for both age groups.

Both classes have a $1 fee per course.

Assembly of a mosaic panel for Benstead Plunge will continue through March.

A class in mosaics and stained glass for adults will begin at 7:30 p.m. Wednesdays starting March 16. Fee for each of the adult classes of four sessions each is $1.

Creations of members of the Torrance Recreation Department's arts and crafts program currently are on display at the South Bay Shopping Center, 174th and Hawthorne Blvd. This display will remain through March 15.

Registration information for any of the craft classes may be obtained by phoning the department offices, FA 8-4108 or the center at FR-5-9142.

Four Torrance High Students to Produce Original Plays

Earl Newsom, Linda Kraegel, Verne Newsom, and Barbara Adams are four Torrance High School students whose original one-act plays were selected by Rosemary De Camp as the winners of the annual one-act play contest.

This year, as in eight previous years, Miss De Camp will sponsor the "Original One-Act Play Festival" and will present a trophy to each of the winning authors.

Three of these plays will be presented Friday, March 11, at 8 p.m. in the Torrance High School Auditorium. The fourth will be presented at a special program for the student body.

The students will cast and direct their own plays. A critique will be held in the cafeteria following the Friday-night performance, at which time the plays will be discussed and evaluated by a panel of critics, headed by Miss De Camp.

Tickets for the festival may be bought from any member of the cast or at the door.

Torrance Composer's Work will be Featured at Cancioneros Concert

A choral work by a musician and resident of Torrance will be a highlight of Los Cancioneros' 10th anniversary concert Saturday, March 26, at Pier Avenue School auditorium, Hermosa Beach.

The chorus, which originated in Hollywood Riviera in 1949, will perform Lyle Heck's setting of the liturgical "Te Deum Laudamus" as the final number in a group of sacred choral works ranging from 16th-century church music to that of the present day.

Heck is well known throughout Southern California as a singer, choral conductor, and teacher.

Barbara Mabin of Rolling Hills, is her seventh year as musical director of the chorus, will conduct. She has selected numbers to appeal to every musical taste. From secular choral music she has chosen the gypsy songs of Johannes Brahms, a group of folk songs in new arrangements, and a short concert version of George Gershwin's "Porgy and Bess," featuring members of the chorus as soloists and instrumentalists.

Groups Schedule Morality, Censorship Forum

A forum on Morality and the Free Press will be held in the Alondra Park Methodist Church, 3153 W. Compton Blvd., the evening of March 18.

The event, sponsored by the South Bay chapter of the American Civil Liberties Union and the Alondra Park Committee on Christian Social Relations, will be moderated by the Rev. Sanford Sweet of Hollypark Methodist Church.

The forum, which will have information and clarification as its objectives, will feature discussions by Dr. Don Cortum of the Torrance Decent Literature Committee; Dr. Irving Goldstein, psychologist; and Stanley Fleisichman, attorney.

The Rev. Mr. Sweet is a member of the Gardena Decent Literature Committee. Chairman of the event is W. W. Dunlap.

Institution Accredited

The Western College Association, at its annual meeting just conducted in San Francisco, accredited the Northrop Institute of Technology, it was announced today by James L. McKinley, institution president.
