Thom McAnn to Open New Store Here Today as Torrance Teens Compete to Be Queens

Ribbon cutting, DJs teen-age models, and free gifts for all visitors highlight today's opening of the new, modern Thom McAnn family shoe center, 15900 Crenshaw Blvd. at Manhattan Beach Blvd.

Inaugurating the festivities is a ribbon-cutting ceremony in which civic officials, businessmen, and store executives officially will declare the store open for business.

Wink Martindale, Paul Compton, and Frank Carroll, popular radio personalities from KHJ Radio 93, will appear in person today from 1 to 5 p.m. Throughout the afternoon, they will play records and give away free pictures, records and autographs. KFWB's outstanding DJs—B. Mitch Reed, Joe Yeoman, and Jim Hawthorne, will be at the store on Saturday afternoon.

Featured during the three-day opening will be the finalists of the Miss Thom McAnn "Teen Queen" contest, modeling the new shoe styles from the Thom McAnn designer fashions spring collection, in the store.

Susan Brady, Denise Fouts, Violet Lanahan, Christine Prather, Cindy Soussa, and Janice Woodruff will compete for the title Saturday at 8 in the store. The winner will also receive a complete modeling course at the Flaire Charm and Modeling School.

All customers will receive free gifts with purchases during the three day opening ceremony. Wallets, hosiery or handbags for women, Esquire shoe-shine kits for men, and pen-and-pencil sets for children. Each child visiting the store will receive a free balloon or lollipop.

The store will showcase an outstanding collection of design trends from round the world in the latest spring colors and styles from Mr. Thom.

Dress and casual shoes for the entire family—men, women, children, and teenagers—with color coordinated handbags, hostery, and other accessories, will be on display.

The interior is divided into three convenient shopping areas. Soft pastel backgrounds provide a warm and restive atmosphere.

Special emphasis has been given to the children's department. Circus cutouts, a mechanical hobby-horse and an elevated fitting platform create a world for children only.

Adenauer Lands in L.A. Tonight

Chancellor Conrad Adenauer of West Germany will pay his first visit to the Southland today. He will arrive at Los Angeles International Airport at 9 p.m. on a specially chartered Lufthansa German Airlines plane.

The Chancellor will receive an invocation at UCLA. The trip will culminate in an official visit to Tokyo.

After a visit to Palm Desert, Adenauer and his party will leave from Palm Springs Sunday morning, March 21, for San Francisco.
