

Long Beach Hosts ECC

PRESS Sports

Chalking up two successive home wins, including a 6-2 triumph over Bakersfield, El Camino College's horsehiders tackle host Long Beach today at 3 p.m. in a Metro Conference tilt.

Stan Beard and Dan Heun provided the stick work for the Tribe and Bob "Andy" Anderson chipped in with a route going hurling performance to bounce the visiting Renegades out of first place and give ECC a two game winning skein.

Anderson handed Coach Chuck Freeman his second consecutive pitching gem in as many games. "Andy" went the distance, keeping the Bakersfield bats silent most of the way. Ron Veres stopped East Los Angeles last Tuesday to enable ECC to win its first loop game.

Veres, like Anderson Friday, didn't issue a free pass. Coach Freeman is extremely jovial because his chuckers have gone 18 innings without allowing a walk.

Although Anderson was tiring in the final round, and his fast ball had lost its zip, he managed to set the BIC swatters down with his breaking stuff. It was the big-right hander's first nine inning accomplishment of the season as he had been on the shelf with a sore arm.

In the batting department, Beard and Heun topped the list with three safeties and two rbi's each in five trips to the plate. Heun tied the contest up in the first round with a base rap that produced a tally and later in the frame scored on a single by Spencer Beard, younger brother of Stan.

Until the fourth the Warriors clung to the narrow 2-1 lead, but added another marker when Stan Beard lined a single to drive Jerry Helvey across.

Pounding out five shots in the seventh stanza, the Tribe picked up three additional runs.

Tom Nyman opened the inning with a one-base blow and Stan Beard followed with a base clearing triple to left-center.

Heun, hitting in the number four spot, chased Beard home with a blue-dart past the Bakersfield shortstop who was drawn in tight to cut off the run at the plate.

Helvey scored Heun a few minutes later with his second hit of the tilt, a stinger through the box.

El Camino College Looks for First Tennis Win

After suffering two consecutive setbacks, Coach Norm Veres' racquetees take dead aim on visiting East Los Angeles tomorrow at 2:30 with hopes of getting back on the winning trail.

El Camino's netmen have already registered one triumph over the Huskie netters, but that came in a pre-season battle.

Defending loop champions Santa Monica hammered out a stunning 9-0 defeat to the Tribe tennis squad on Friday. It was the first time in many years that ECC had been blanked in dual match competition.

Santa Monica's high flying Corsairs, perched atop this season's chase, turned back the local's without losing a set.

DISNEYLAND'S NEWEST attraction, Nature's Wonderland, will take visitors by Mine Train and pack mule on a trip through forest and desert regions of the American West. Opening in June, the $1.8 million development will feature more than 200 animated animals, birds and reptiles, who will "perform" for visitors. Nature's Wonderland is the most extensive animation program ever attempted, surpassing even Disneyland's own Jungle River Cruise and Submarine Voyage. Highlights of the animal animation are shown in the circles around this artist's conception of Nature's Wonderland.

the Tribe racquetmen on Wednesday as it tallied a 7-2 decision. Clain Burnham and Chuck Lucas were the lone Warriors to claim victories over the Vikings. Burnham dropped the first set to Vike Bill Rehe 6-8, but bounced back to nail down the match 6-4, 6-8. Lucas used his forehand smashes to rack up a 6-3 first set triumph over LBCC's Dwaine McNulty, but the Vike ace returned with a 6-4 win. Lucas copped the final set 6-1 and easily took the duel.
