Irritation in Lomita EDITOR THE PRESS:

A recent editorial in Lomita characterized the officials of the City of Torrance as "Ruthless, unimpaired, aggressive and often ridiculous."

Before a water hearing in the Woods Elementary School the Mayor of Torrance assured the gathering that Torrance doesn't want to intrude into the affairs of Lomita unless the majority of the people there want them to.

It would be all right in official Torrance view to serve water in Lomita but not for the county to serve a much neglected area in Torrance.

The City of Torrance then attempts to annex a portion of Lomita at Gresham and Lomita Blvd. The property owners there oppose this six to two.

In modern day affairs can we afford the luxury of irresponsibility? Can progress be held up by officials without regard for the welfare of others?

DESSIE MYERS, president Lomita Property Owners and Registered Voters, Inc.

Nobody's Advisers EDITOR THE PRESS:

My wife and I are embarrassed to find our names heading the list on a circular urging citizens to vote for a particular candidate for Torrance City Council.

We are not part of anyone's advisory committee, and our names were used without our prior knowledge or consent.

The Democrat View EDITOR THE PRESS:

Because many have asked my opinion, knowing I keep informed, here is my position: I consider all elections and issues partisan. As a lifelong working Democrat and a member of the State Democratic Committee, I cannot endorse a member of the opposition party. I am pledged to this principle.

Fortunately our party is loaded with talent. I recommend for your consideration three I have known and worked with through the years.

John Barton, an attorney and campaign coordinator for Attorney General Stanley Mosk, is a man courageous enough to bring out issues no other candidate has faced up to.

Thirvin D. Fleetwood, a long-time political worker, member of the Democratic County Committee and the Planning Commission, a union officer with no conflict of interest, promises fair government for all.

Rose Craig is a kind and wonderful woman, beloved by all who know her. She is a member of the Parks and Recreation Commission and devotes much time to civic affairs. She seldom misses a City Council meeting, probably holding a record for attendance, giving her a true picture of what goes on.

She was nominated for the Torrance Press "Woman of the Year" award, which proves our point.

Another contender, less well-known, is Jeff Bell, who has a great interest in recreation.

Choose wisely and attain good government.

Past Presidents Honored by Club at Luncheon

Ten past presidents of the Torrance Woman's Club, District 18, CFWC, were guests of honor at a club luncheon Wednesday.

They were Mmes. J. S. Lancaster, 1926; M. J. Beale, 1936-37; H. C. Barrington, 1937-39; Chris Jones, 1946-47; W. I. Laughon, 1947-49; D. L. Sears, 1950-51; B. T. Whitney, 1950-51; H. R. Richards, 1954-55; H. L. Mitchell, 1955-56; and R. E. Moffitt, 1957-58.

The past officers were given orchid corsages by Mmes. J. P. Bay and Sid Gans, vice presidents.

Mrs. Sears received a past president pin. Making the presentation was Mrs. John W. Thuss, president.

At the business session Mmes. Alan C. Moore and Rufus Sandstrom were elected delegates to the club's state convention May 9 at the Biltmore Hotel in Los Angeles.

Mrs. Andrew Acampora, wavy and means chairman, announced that the group's "Mad Hatter Ball" would take place May 4. Changes in the club by-laws were announced by Mrs. D. J. Thomson, parliamentarian.

Mrs. Victor Benstead, garden chairman, invited members of the garden section to attend flower shows in the area and asked that they bring plants for a plant exchange at the April 20 meeting.

Guest speaker at the luncheon was W. E. Bowen who gave a talk on the history of Torrance. He said that Torrance was originally part of the land grant made to the Dominguez family by the King of Spain. In 1912 the city was founded by Charles Sydney Torrance of Pasadena.

He added that Torrance is the largest shipper of orchids and carnations in the country.
