Story of Steel to Be Told in Special Short at Roadium

"Rhapsody of Steel," a 23-minute animated motion picture depicting in Technicolor the story of steel from primitive man to space man, will be shown at the Roadium Drive-in tonight through Saturday. Dimitri Tiomkin, who has written the musical scores for more than 100 movies and won three Academy Awards, composed the score for "Rhapsody" and conducted its playing by the Pittsburgh Symphony. The picture was directed by Carl Urbano, who won two Acad-

'Night Must Fall' to Be Given by Footlight Theatre in June

Three performances will be presented of Emyln Williams' psychological thriller, "Night Must Fall," a three-act play, staged by the Footlight Theatre. The production will be staged June 3, 4, and 5 at 8:30 at the Civic Plunge, 3331 Torrance Blvd. The director, Herman Boodman, said that for a psychological drama, "Night Must Fall" would tax any acting company. As for Jack Conrad, in the emy Awards for color animation while with MGM. Perhaps the most striking feature of "Rhapsody" is its color animation, a sharp departure from conventional commercial films. Gary Merrill, stage, screen, and TV star, narrated the story. Art direction was handled by Eyvind Earle, whose backgrounds thrilled moviegoers in Walt Disney's "Sleeping Beauty." The picture is the first of its kind to use Disney-like color animation techniques.

lead part of Dan, if any similar murder is headlined in the next few weeks at will point only to him. Dan is a homicidal psychopath living in a world of his own making, forced upon him by a world he cannot understand, hates, and will go to all ends to become a somebody in the world rejecting him—even murder. The other leading character is Mrs. Bramson, a hateful domineering, hypochondriac whom everyone in the audience would enjoy murdering. This is the second production since January for the Footlight Theatre, organized last fall. The group is sponsored by the Torrance Recreation Department.

City Will Use USC Students as Teachers' Aids

Applications for persons to serve as teacher interns in Torrance schools are being accepted. In cooperation with USC, the district will choose about 15 who have bachelor's degrees in liberal arts. This program is similar to several used in other parts of the country under the Ford Foundation.

The program would place the 15 as part-time teacher assistants in several schools next fall.

Woman Golfers Start Annual Tourney Today

Members of the Sea-Aire Women's Golf Club will swing into spring with their annual tournament today and next Thursday. Players in the handicap and scratch competition will tee off at 9 a.m. each day. New officers are Helen Moulton, president; Lee Bake, vice-president; Van Calderwood, secretary; and Betty Nelson, treasurer.

ISLAND FEAST—Tani Marsh, Nalani Kelo, the Polynesian Restaurant's luau festival, and Sunbeam Beamer plan entertainment for Feast of the Islands, slated Sunday, May 22.

Two Torrance Airmen Finish Basic Training

Airman Matthew D. McIntyre of 4928 Calle De Arboles and Airman Allen G. Brisack Jr. of 2014 Torrance Blvd. have completed their initial course of Air Force basic military training at Lackland AFB, Texas. Both have been selected to attend further specialized training. McIntyre assigned to the Radio and Radar Maintenance Course at Keesler AFB, Mississippi and Brisack has been selected for the Supply Specialist Course at Amarillo AFB, Texas. According to T/Sgt. Duane K. Helter, local Air Force recruiter, the aptitudes for these men were determined prior to enlistment. They were graded in administration, mechanics, general, and in the electronics area. Men between 17 and 27 and women between 18 and 27 may contact Helter at the recruiting office, 1819 1/2 Sartori St., or by calling FA 8-1404. Immediate appointments will be set up for those interested in aptitude tests.
