'Smokey the Bear' Meets 'Bubbles the Whale'

Two of the nation's most beloved members of the Animal Kingdom, one symbolic of forest fire prevention, the other symbolic of water, met today for the first time on the latter's home base, Marineland of the Pacific.

"Smokey Bear," mascot of the U.S. Forest Service, Association of California State Foresters and Advertising Council and known by millions as the bear who reminds campers to stamp out their cigarettes and camp fires before leaving mountain areas, journeyed to Marineland at the invitation of William F. ### 3 Drivers Top Slate at Ascot

Three top drivers look to be the favorites for this Saturday, nights Modified-Sportsman Car feature at the New Ascot Stadium. Over 100 laps of action packed racing is set for the holiday weekend program over the half mile oval.

The top three pilots entered are, Bob Hogle, Buena Park; Rip Erikson, N. Hollywood; and Jack McCoy, San Diego. Hogle finally came through to capture last week's feature event in the Danielson, T-Bird powered racer previously driven to three main event wins by Parnelli Jones. He is rated as number one threat to repeat in the 50 lap feature.

Erikson with one main event win in his Corvette powered racer, almost made it two in a row last week, when he led for 34 laps until a tire went flat while he was still leading.

McCoy the only out of town driver to fair well in local competition with one main event win, will be out to even up the odds in his Corvette engined car.

Other top drivers entered include: Don Edmunds, Anaheim; Art Pratt, Escondido; Don Johns, Santa Ana; Hank Henry, Tucson; Ed Van Eyk, Bellflower; "Irish" Jack Kelly, Long Beach; Clyde Mitchell, Torrance; Don Forte, Venice; Carl Byrd, Venice; Arkie Moore, Riverside; Art Atkinson, S. Pasadena; and Jack Brunner, Gardena.
