Camino Art Teacher Honored by French

International recognition will be given Miss Mildred K. Walker, El Camino College art instructor in an article which will appear in the June issue of the French magazine, La Revue.

Miss Walker has been notified by the editors of the publication that her work in the series are done in colors that show the undulations of tone and mood evoked by the summer season.

Added to the international flavor of Miss Walker's coming French recognition will be the work she intends to do this summer on a round-the-world trip.

The Guitai movement of Japanese artists will be the center of her inquiry.

While in Japan Miss Walker will photograph and interview the artists of the Guitai movement and upon her return will attempt to evaluate their stage of contemporary development.

Miss Walker is known in the South Bay area as the originator of El Camino's Christmas-time "Madonna Row." Her works are now showing in the Comara Gallery in Beverly Hills and in Las Vegas at the Annual Round-up.
