INVITATION TO SUMMER — Miss Betty Kraft of Torrance shows swimsuit she will model at Sears "Live Bait" fashion show scheduled Tuesday afternoon on main floor.

Swimsuits to be Featured at Sears Showing Tuesday

Sears Torrance will welcome the summer season with a swimsuit fashion parade Tuesday from 1 to 3 p.m. in the women's fashion department on the main floor.

Entitled "Live Bait" the show will feature the bathing styles of Sears' Star Fashionists.

On hand to aid viewers in their selection of suits will be Miss Carol Perkins of Sears fashion department.

Miss Perkins will acquaint guests with her decalogue of swimsuit buying:

1. Never buy a swimsuit unless you try it on with a minimum of undergarments.
2. Select your swimsuit as carefully as you do your most glamorous evening gown.
3. Be certain it has the same controlling fit as your foundation garments.
4. Permit your swimsuit consultant or figure analyst to assist you. This is her specialty and she can better judge if the suit is correctly fitted.
5. Never buy a suit for style and color alone; be sure it's comfortable as you sit, stand, bend, and swim.
6. Make sure you have chosen the most flattering silhouette in a style becoming to you.
7. Try one of the new fashion shades. If in the past you have always worn black, you'll be surprised how color will brighten your spirits and your complexion.
8. Never buy just one suit. You'll need at least two; and if you can possibly budget a third, it's a great investment in getting that man or keeping the one you have.
9. Read the instruction for caring for your suit which appears on the handtag. You'll be a-much happier gal because your suit will stay lovely for a much longer time.
10. Relax and have fun knowing you're your loveliest, prettiest self in your new swimsuit.

Casual Cottons Feature of Summer Fashions

The charm of summer's more casual life, of picnicking, vacationing, informal entertaining, is intensified by clothes that look and feel the part.

Leading the parade of sunshine fashions is a host of new Sanforized cottons—lively, chipper ones, with a special booster shot of attractiveness and ease of care to make the season memorable.

Among them are crisply checked denims, cool hopsackings, striped cords, spanking white ducks, embroidered chambrays and plaid novelties in abundance, available at extremely modest prices.

Versatility is the style keynote. A good prescription for more dollar and wearing mileage, is the emphasis on the coordinated theme. Tops, skirts and long and short pants are designed in a mix-match harmony of patterns and plain colors for that trim made-for-each-other look.

Fashion's newest favorite, the patio dress is airily sleeveless and sun-loving, and goes merrily around the clock. Shirtwaist dresses in partnership with matching sweater toppers make indispensable season-long costumes for working or vacationing.

To fully justify their mileage potentialities, fun-time fashions must have the added virtue of being completely washable.

Nothing has such a salutary effect on your summer good looks as today's freedom for easy washing. For instance, white is tremendously flattering against a tan, so live a little. Wear it often!

A cool, loosely woven hopsacking is a newsmaking fabric for sport shirts, this year. Patterned in a novel emblem motif, it has been made up interestingly in His 'n' Her shirts, paying an attractive fashion tribute to a happy partnership.

Dresses are a must on any feminine shopping list. Noticeable this season is the trend to simpler styling in shirt waist and coat dress styles, but the emphasis is on choosing unusual and decorative fabrics for a dramatic impact.

Leading contender for all-round fashion favor this season is the patio dress, with a pretty strapped bare top and windswept skirt. These editions are destined to stray far from patios and terraces. They will star at innumerable day and evening events.
