

NEW PRESIDENT—Mrs. Roy J. Apsey, new president of the Torrance Woman's Club, receives gavel from Mrs. John W. Thuss, outgoing president. Installation was June 1.

Woman's Club Stages 39th Installation Rites

Baskets of lavender-pink hydrangeas against a background of fern set the stage Wednesday for the 39th annual installation ceremony of the Torrance Woman's Club, District 18, CFWC.

Highlight of the decor, following the theme, "Over the Rainbow," was a pot of gold, on a low table, center stage, containing rolled ribbons in varied pastel colors, representing the club officers.

As each officer was installed she drew the ribbon of her office. Drawing the president's ribbon was Mrs. Roy J. Apsey, 35th president of the club.

Taking office with her were Mmes. Leondrus Stamps, E. L. J. Lenk, and R. C. Pocha, vice presidents; Godfrey Nelson, recording secretary; A. S. Moore, corresponding secretary; and Rufus Sandstrom, treasurer.

Also Mmes. E. C. St. Amand, auditor; A. Z. England, ways and means chairman; H. W. Bowman, reservations; Don Wolf, program chairman; C. E. Ackley, book chairman; B. W. Roberts, membership.

Mrs. Ervin Moudy accepted for Mrs. Nelson; Mrs. Sid Gans accepted for Mrs. Roberts.

Installing officers were Mmes. Dean Sears and B. T. Whitney.

Mrs. John W. Thuss, outgoing president, was given a silver tea and coffee service by the membership in appreciation of her work.

She received the club's press book, winner of first prize at the district and state conventions, from Mrs. E. G. Laughney.

Mrs. Ackley, outgoing historian, presented the historian's book to the club. Guests heard annual reports from Mrs. Thuss and Mrs. Kenneth Boulter, outgoing president of the Junior Woman's Club.

Sixty-four persons attended.

City's Juniors Take Honors at Convention

The Torrance Junior Woman's Club, District 18, captured three awards at the recent state convention of the California Federation of Women's Clubs, junior membership, at the Statler-Hilton Hotel, Los Angeles.

A special achievement award, given by CARE, was won for 100% participation in providing CARE school kits for students in Vietnam. Each club was asked to donate $1 per member over a two-year period. In that time the Juniors raised more than $250, the major portion of it during the past year.

The club won third place in the international affairs category. Both awards are under the chairmanship of Mrs. Joseph Boylan.

The latter award was won for work done by members during the Konya Days celebration; the collection of foreign-language books and periodicals for the Torrance schools; donations to the Meals-for-Millions program; mailing of American magazines to citizens of Turkey, and support of the American Field Service program.

In the build-a-better-community awards given by the Sears Foundation, the Juniors, under chairmanship of Mrs. John M. Stokley, won honorable mention, with a cash award of $35, for painting and refurbishing of the YMCA.
