

Classes Offered in Driver Safety

Marshall Crawshaw, director of adult education for Torrance Evening High School, will conduct courses for University of California Extension this summer.

A class in "The Teaching of Driver Education and Driver Training" will meet at the Extension Center, 813 S. Hill St. in Los Angeles, Mondays and Wednesdays from 1 to 3:30 p.m., starting June 20.

Magic Marketing Previewed at Del Amo

Biggest of the big, Magic Chef Market has filled its more than 35,000 square feet of selling space with conveniences that make marketing truly magical. The marvelous

Magic Chef bakery bakes all day long to assure customers of a constant supply of hot, fresh breads, rolls, cakes, and pastries. An extra-special attraction is the picture-window cake-decorating center, where customers may watch elegant creations of icing and spun sugar being made on special order.

A luxurious restaurant is another Magic Chef plus. Serving delicious meals all through the marketing day, it seats 60 in sheer comfort. Meals are gourmet fare here, prepared by famed chef Jerry Mehlman.

Next to the Magic Chef Restaurant is the market's Gourmet Center, where exotic foods and party snacks are available in profusion, as well as specialties from the restaurant to take out.

Magic Chef's homemaker's bazaar, the largest variety section in the area, contains just about everything needed around the house and around people, from fuses to frocks. Buyers for the bazaar have combed the country for special items which combine beauty and value.

All these, plus a flower shop, a donut shop, and a magnificent selection of groceries, meats, produce, mean that "There's Magic in Marketing at Magic Chef."

New Baptist Church Forms in Harbor City

The newly-organized Harbor Heights Baptist Church will hold its first worship service Sunday at 11 a.m., at its temporary location on 10th and Mesa Sts., San Pedro.

The church is affiliated with the American Baptist Convention and is being sponsored by the Los Angeles Baptist City Mission Society.

The Rev. D. S. Bennett, director of church extension for the society will preach. Charter membership will be opened Sunday morning and continue through the month of September.

"An invitation in the name of the church is extended to all who would like to worship with us. Sunday School for all ages at 9:45 to 10:45 a.m. precedes morning worship," said George Bailey, spokesman for the church.

He concluded, "the church will hold prayer meetings Wednesdays at 7:30 p.m. at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Ferrin, 1836 W. 254th St., Lomita."

EXPLOSIVE—H. C. McClellan, chairman of City-to-City Committee on "The Explosive Moscow" exhibition, will talk to Torrance's World Situation" at special meeting here.

Konya Committee Will See Film on Moscow Exposition

A general meeting of the Torrance-Konya City to City Committee will be held Monday, June 20, at 7:30 p.m. in the City Council Chambers, according to John Barton, chairman.

H. C. McClellan, chairman of America's Exposition in Moscow in 1959, will be the featured speaker.

McClellan will show official films of the Moscow event—one that created world-wide attention. The public may hear McClellan comment on the "Explosive World Situation."

McClellan is a native son, born at Crow's Landing.

After obtaining his AB degree at Occidental College in 1922, he bought a small paint manufacturing firm for $10,000. Today the Old Colony Paint & Chemical Company is one of the nation's most outstanding paint-manufacturing firms.

He is a former member of the San Marino City Council, Los Angeles Metropolitan Transit Authority, Wage Stabilization Board, and War Labor Board. McClellan also is past president of the Merchants & Manufacturer's Association, board of trustees of Occidental College, and National Association of Manufacturers.

Car Crashes Fence, Lands in Front Yard

A car smashed through a chain fence and landed in a Torrance resident's yard early Tuesday morning, injuring the driver.

The car, driven by Richard Mann, 40, of Santa Monica, went out of control, knocked down a light pole and ended up in the yard of Sam Kita, 13175 Hawthorne Blvd.
