

Women

Joan Briggs, Woman's Editor

★ TELEPHONE DA 5-1515

Y-WIVES OFFICIALS—Mrs. Chet Warren (left), new president of Y-Wives, and Mmes. John Spencer, first vice president; Richard Evans, recording secretary; and Robert Crenshaw, corresponding secretary; pictured following their installation last Tuesday.

NEW PRESIDENT—Mrs. Joseph Yates (left), outgoing president of the Torrance Ladies of the Elks gives gavel to new president, Mrs. Donald George, at recent installation ceremonies. —Press Photo

Ladies of the Elks Seat Officers Panel

Springtime was the theme last Sunday when the Torrance Ladies of the Elks held their installation dinner in the Elks Lodge.

Highlighting the table decorations were miniature maypoles with pastel streamers.

Taking office were Mmes. Donald E. George, president; Robert Le Blond and Lyle Le Fors, vice presidents; Orville Lorenz, recording secretary; Kenneth Clutter, treasurer; and Ted Foster, corresponding secretary.

Chairmen appointed by Mrs. George are Mmes. Samuel Synder and Al Senti, hostesses; Robert Flowers, Raymond Spehger, and William Patton, membership; and Marvin Jones and Clifford Crume, publicity.

Also Mmes. Charles Lyone, David Spence, and Norman Radi, year book; Charles Marquand, sunshine; Merritt Hartel and Lambert Brownlee, hospitality; Buell Sullenger, men's hostess; and Don Harding, registrar.

And Mmes. Ray Cheek, birthdays; Carl Gotts, name capsules; Harry Grimes and Charles Webb, tickets; Harry Carlson, Clarence Johnson, and Harry Alexander, telephone; and Dale Brubaker, name tabs.

Mrs. Joseph Yates, outgoing president was given a past-president pin and an electric griddle by the membership in appreciation of her work during the past year.

Serving the dinner were members' daughters, the Misses Gayle and Carol Huffine, Kathy and Peggy Webb, Kathy Clutter, and Sharon Johnson.

PTA News

Summer-Film Program Set at Howard Wood

Summer movies, sponsored by Howard Wood PTA, will be shown Wednesday, beginning June 22, from 1:15 p.m. to 2 p.m. in the school cafeteria, 2250 W. 235th St. Tickets will be sold at the door.

Lunch stands, selling hot dogs, cold drinks and popcorn, will open at 12:15 p.m.

Mrs. C. R. Griffin, ways and means chairman, announced the films scheduled are: June 22, "Beaver Valley" and "How to Play Baseball"; June 29, "Deluxe Cartoon Parade" and "Good Scents";

July 6, "Deluxe Cartoon Parade (A)" and "Trailer Horn"; July 13, "History of Aviation" and "Cartoon Parade"; and July 20 "Cartoon Parade" and "Modern Inventions on Ice."

On July 27, "Alice in Wonderland" will be shown. This feature runs for 1 1/2 hours, thus pick-up time for children will be at 2:45 p.m. instead of 2 p.m.

Arlington Head Holds First Board Meeting

Mrs. Richard Gerald, new president of Arlington PTA, held her first executive board meeting, on June 8 at the school.

Principal Henry Behrens welcomed new officers and chairmen.

Due to a change in the by-laws, the offices of fourth vice president, held by Donna Alexander, and fifth vice president, held by Etta Henderson, have been added to the board.

Plans for a weekly movie with refreshments following, to be held at Arlington during the summer, were presented by Mrs. Phillip Aurit, third vice president.

FLOWER ARTIST—Miss Tomika Yamazaki of Japan gives BPW members Mrs. Herman Kehrner (left), Bess Tufts and Lee Petrovich a preview of talk set tomorrow at club dinner. —Press Photo

BPW Will View Program on Flower Arrangements

Miss Tomiko Yamazaki, foreign-exchange student at El Camino College, will be guest speaker tomorrow when Torrance Business and Professional Women's Club holds its international-relationships dinner at Lococo's Restaurant in Manhattan Beach.

Miss Yamazaki, a native of Tokyo, will give a speech and give a demonstration on the art of flower arrangements. An interior-design student, she plans to attend UCLA upon graduation.

An added feature on the program will be a discussion of the Hula Hula by Ruth Brumby. Miss Brumby, a member of the club, has recently returned from a trip to the South Seas. On board ship, she was awarded first prize as best student in the Hula Hula class. At a brief business session, the group discussed the International Business and Professional Women's congress slated for 1962 in Southern Rhodesia. Recently the club donated 100% to the international fund to aid business women throughout the world in attending the conference.

Enjoyment is Topic at Sorority Parley

Xi Zeta Lambda, Beta Sigma Phi, heard two discussions on enjoyment at a recent meeting in the home of Mrs. John Wise.

Mrs. Bert Whited spoke on "Enjoyment of Man," Mrs. Raymond Millhouse's talk was entitled, "Our Own Enjoyment."

Mrs. John Kestle, a transferee, was welcomed into the chapter. Mrs. T. R. Eddy of Kappi Pi Chapter, Compton, was guest at the meeting.

Mrs. Whited was given a star for her achievement band in honor of being selected girl of the year by the chapter.

Mrs. William Schroeder was named new treasurer of the group.

Tentative plans were made by members for a pot-luck dinner July 15 in Higgins Patio.

Open-House Tea Set July 27 by Woman's Club

The new board of the Torrance Woman's Club, District 18, CFWC, made plans at its first meeting Wednesday to hold an open house tea July 27 to acquaint new residents with the aims and philosophy of the club.

The officers also mapped a basic agenda for the year's work and completed plans for members to act as hostesses in the Powder Puff Derby luncheon July 8 at the Jump 'n Jack Restaurant.

Mrs. Roy Apsey, president, announced the following chairmen for the new club year:

Mmes. D. G. DeHoog, art; W. L. Lucas and Charles Ward, Bible and spiritual values; Godfrey Nelson, drama; E. C. Ackley, historian; A. Z. England, D. T. Dantico and S. M. Shaw, ways and means; D. J. Quinlivan, literature; R. E. Moffitt, press book; John Warnock and H. E. Barbey, registrars; B. W. Roberts and Jack Phillips, membership; E. C. Ackley and R. L. Rudy, year book; V. E. Benstead, decorations; and S. J. Dunhouse, golf.

The list of chairmen will be completed at the group's next meeting, July 3, at 10 a.m. at the clubhouse.

Amaranth Hosts Official Visitors

Lomita Court 61, Order of Amaranth, was honored last Thursday by an official visit from Dorothy Kelly, assistant grand lecturer, and Della Mollenkoph, district deputy grand royal matron.

Marquerite Morgan, royal matron, and Edward Morgan, royal patron officiated at the ritual.

Guests of honor were Wilson O. Wade, deputy supreme grand royal patron; Dorothy Davis and Agnes Devore, district deputy grand royal matrons; Ruby Wade, grand associate condustress; Ethel Lewis, assistant grand lecturer; and Stanley Bradford and Frank Wardell, grand representatives.

Troop 580 Holds Court of Awards

Girl Scout Troop 580, sponsored by the Howard Wood PTA, held its Court of Awards June 11 at Higgins Brick Yard.

Girls receiving second class and puppet badges were Terry Brasswell, Sandra Cox, Susan Clark, Nancy Coffey, Diana DeWitt, Jan Eckersley, Judy-Engstrom, Nancy Harrison, Pamela Hoy, Erica Morgan, Diane Zuver, Elizabeth Rye, Juey Wyrck, Cleoan McComas, Linda Wigg and Nancy Juvey.

Girls receiving other awards were Nancy Coffey, Judy Engstrom, dabbler badge; Erica Morgan, garden flower; Pamela Hoy, skating and rock and mineral and Cleoan McComas, swimming.

Awards were given for attendance to Nancy Coffey, Susan Clark, Diana DeWitt, Jan Eckersley, Judy Wyrck, Erica Morgan and Cleoan McComas.

MISS FRAN FRISINA
Betrothed Announced at Party

Photo by Virginia

Miss Frisina to Become Bride of Tom Bogetich

Miss Fran Frisina, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jasper Frisina, 3607 244th St., will become the bride of Tom M. Bogetich, Aug. 27 in St. Lawrence Martyr Catholic Church.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Tom J. Bogetich of San Pedro.

The bride-elect received her ring at a recent engagement party in the home of her parents.

A graduate of Torrance High School, class of '55, she is employed as a secretary at Space Technology in El Segundo.

The prospective bridegroom was graduated from San Pedro High School in 1953. He will receive a B.A. in industrial arts from Long Beach State College in July. He is a member of Epsilon Pi, national honorary fraternity in industrial and vocational arts.

Legion Auxiliary Card Party Slated Wednesday

The Lomita American Legion Auxiliary will stage a card party Wednesday, starting at 8 p.m. at the Legion Hall, 24702 Narbonne Ave.

Mrs. C. P. Olson is chairman.

Bridge, canasta, pinochle and five hundred will be played.

Mr. Bogetich plans to take his M.A. in education in the fall. He is employed by the Los Angeles Department of Parks in San Pedro.

Unitarian Church Summer School Will Open Today

The Pacific Unitarian Church will open its children's summer program today, at 11 a.m.

Pre-school and kindergarten pupils will meet on the church grounds, 1610 Acacia St. The class will be under direction of Cherie Williamson and Francis Brady.

Classes for first grade through high school will be held at the Torrance YMCA, 1310 Carson St.

Ed Kenyon, San Pedro newspaperman, will conduct a workshop on photography today and June 26. Students must bring their own cameras.

Other subjects will include crafts, led by Estelle Dwyer and Gloria Jacoby; creative writing, led by Betty Paieda; dramatic reading, conducted by Dick Oliver, Alice Sievers and Haleen Potts; films by Mae Haut; folk singing, led by Mike Goodwin; painting, after Aug. 1, conducted by Susan McGee; and creative design, led by Marcus White.

IF YOU'RE LUCKY, you might win a trip to Las Vegas by simply rolling up sleeves, putting on your flats and swinging a partner at the North Torrance Little League's Cotton-and-Jean Dance Saturday, starting at 9:30 p. m., at the Gardens

Elks Hall, 1735 W. 162nd St. From left, Mmes. John Motta, Robert Fawley, Arthur Lester and James Reynolds complete replica of vacation scene depicting door prize. Tickets are $1 per person, available at the door. —Press Photo