

Local Girl Scouts Attend Camps in Torrance Area

Torrance parks, Alondra and El Nido Parks will host nearly 1,000 Girl Scouts during the remainder of June and early July as the girls attend day camps.

Trained volunteer Girl Scout leaders will supervise a varied program of outdoor activities at five separate camps.

The following consultants will be available to serve the estimated 275 Girl Scouts: Mrs. Otis V. Hatfield, drawing; Dorothy La Spina, dancing; Mrs. William Urick, outdoor fun; Mrs. Joseph Rimlinger, adventure in arts; Mrs. E. E. Ducammun, your home; Mrs. Nealis Shreeve Jr., citizenship, and Mrs. Louis P. Fitzgerald, co-ordinator for overnight campout.

New Industries Join City Ranks

Three industries are joining the ranks of Torrance firms this month. The companies are Kaag Trophies, which has just moved here; Thiem Industries, which is building; and Woodland Furniture, to begin construction. "These 'blue chip' firms (not stamps) will employ a total of close to 400 people—think what that means to the community," George Bradford of the Chamber of Commerce, said.

At a June breakfast meeting Tuesday at the Masonic Lodge of Torrance, the organization will welcome the industries to the community. Also, during the meeting, J. H. Paget, outgoing president will be honored. "Pag" has led this organization to its greatest year and certainly, we should show our appreciation to him at his last official meeting as president," Kenny Uyeda, member of the chamber, said.
