

DUMAS DANCE RECAPTURES EARLY SPAIN

DINING UNDER THE STARS—From left, Dr. and Mrs. Andrew De Paulo, Mr. and Mrs. John Karmelich, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Bear Jr., Mrs. Leo Foley Jr., and Paul Sturdevant enjoy refreshments at the Las Dumas supper dance last Saturday. Press Photo

NOCHE EN LA PLAZA—Mrs. Danta Kirk and Dominic Comparsi (left), Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Dunn, and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Thimm dance to the music of Bill Byers and his orchestra at the Las Dumas event in benefit of Lasuen School library. Press Photo

Mrs. Leitner Revisits Home After 37 Years

Returning to Germany for a visit after 37 years in the United States, Mrs. Joseph Leitner, 23303 Eshelman Ave., left via jet for her homeland Saturday.

She intends to visit her brother in Munich, and plans trips to Frankfurt, Nuremberg, and the Bavarian Alps to visit friends and relatives.

Mrs. Leitner will attend the German Passion Festival, a world-famous event held every 10 years.

She has been a resident of Torrance since 1925.

"When widows exclaim loudly against second marriages, I would always lay a wager that the man, if not the wedding-day, is absolutely fixed on."

—Henry Fielding

Miss Hameetman Bride of Alan Kyle

Magnolias and gladioli decorated St. Mark's Presbyterian Church Friday for the evening wedding of Miss Flora Arline Hameetman and Ensign Alan M. Kyle.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. J. P. Hameetman, 2152 W. 255th St., Lomita, and the late Mr. Hameetman. His parents are Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Kyle of Audubon Park, Louisville, Ky.

Attired in a wedding ensemble of her own design, Miss Hameetman was escorted to the altar by her brother, Mr. Fred Hameetman. Her gown was a long sheath of ivory peau de soie with matching overskirt highlighted by a bodice of eyelet-embroidered satin.

Her illusion veil was draped in four tiers from a crown of flowers and she carried a bouquet of magnolias interspersed with leaves.

The Rev. Eldon Durham

officiated at the double-ring vows.

Attending the bride were Miss Joyce Loedige as maid of honor and Mmes. Roger Simmons and Don Crum, bridesmaids. All were gowned in sheaths of yellow chinzano with yellow velvet head bands securing their veils. They carried miniatures of the bridal bouquet.

Miss Tamara Atkinson also wore yellow for her role as flower girl and carried a basket of yellow rosebuds.

Dick Kyle was his brother's best man. Walter Brucker and Frank Hillemeier ushered.

The mother of the bride was in a muted green sheath with white gloves.

A reception was held in the church hall immediately following the service. The couple also will be feasted at a reception July 2 in Louisville.

(Continued on Page 2-C)

Watson Triplets Baptized Sunday at St. Andrew's

John Watson, 18720 Arlington Ave., celebrated Father's Day Sunday by attending the baptism of his three-month-old triplet sons, Mr. and Mrs. Watson's first children.

The ceremony was held at St. Andrew's Episcopal Church with the Rev. Hugh R. Percy officiating.

Welcomed into the fellowship of the church were Daniel Clark, David Ansel, and DeWayne John, born March 21 in St. Mary's Hospital in Long Beach.

Sharing the duties of godfather for the triplets are Jack Demland of Torrance, their uncle, and David Caldwell of Columbus, Ind.

Mrs. Francis Moore was named godmother for Daniel; Mrs. Floyd Pendleton, an aunt, is David's godmother; and Mrs. Peter Baum is DeWayne's godmother.

How does Mrs. Watson feel about her triple blessing?

"Delighted, but not surprised," she explained, "everything in our family happens in threes."

"We were all born in the third month, the boys were born three minutes apart, and now we prepare formula three times a day."

Mr. and Mrs. Watson were married June 5, 1959, in Long Beach where Mr. Watson was stationed with the U.S. Navy.

They have been living in Torrance with Mrs. Watson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clark Demland since December. Mr. Watson is with Hughes Aircraft.

Brownies Pay Tribute to Dads

Members of Brownie Troop 21 entertained their dads at an afternoon of miniature golf and dinner in honor of Father's Day.

Attending were James Fagnano and daughters Patricia and Rosemarie, Cliff Flacy and daughter Leslie, Ed Friberg and daughter Diane, Andrew Rabel and daughter Martha, and Richard Thompson and daughter Carol.

Also Al Van Nieuwehuysse and daughter JoAnn, Donald Krauser and daughter Debbie, Bob Yancey and daughter Martha, George Witz and daughter Marilyn, Jesse Cox and daughter Cindy, Don Maloy, Gwen Nelson, and Kendra Posey.

The troop is sponsored by the Torrance Elementary PTA.

Altar Society to Stage Card Party Tonight

A card party will be staged today by the Altar Society of St. Margaret Mary Catholic Church, 25501 Eshelman St., starting at 8 p.m., in the church hall.

St. Margaret Mary Guild will be host.

Women

Joan Briggs, Woman's Editor

TELEPHONE DA 5-1515

Council Plans Discussion of New Rulings

Members of the South Bay Council of Beta Sigma Phi will discuss a new set of rules on which to base the selection of council girl at a board meeting Monday at home of the group's president, Mrs. Joseph Wolfe.

Last Monday, members attended a luncheon at the Thunderbird Hotel to make plans for its 1961 breakfast slated for May.

Attending were Mrs. Robert Marble, breakfast chairman, and Mmes. Andres Foster, Chuck Alaska, Norman McLeod, Wolfe, Eric Swanson, Ray Millhouse, Walter Klasno, and Dean Woodward.

Also Barbara Pendergrass and Mmes. Donald Heaney, and Lester Mayfield, junior past president of the council.

Jensens Greet Fifth Daughter

"It's so nice to be the only man around a house."

This was the feeling of A. C. Jensen Jr., last Thursday when his wife presented him with their fifth child . . . and fifth girl.

Petite Lenna Jane was born at Centinela Hospital, Inglewood, and tipped the scales at seven pounds, 13 ounces.

She joins sisters, Darlene, 17; Toni Lee, 15; Debra, 7; and Jerri, 6 in the Jensen household at 1323 Greenwood Ave.

"Of course it's a girl," Jensen exclaimed when he heard the news. "All my friends bet me it would be a boy, I would have lost my shirt."

The new baby's maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wells, 18100 Bailey Dr. Paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Jensen of Westchester.

Mr. and Mrs. Jensen Jr. were married in Las Vegas in July 1939. They have lived in Torrance for the past 18 years.

MR. AND MRS. CHARLES GRAY at reception following their wedding

Photo by Link's

Bridgeman-Gray Nuptials Recited at Lake Tahoe

Miss Sally Lee Bridgeman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Bridgeman, 4910 Calle de Arboles, Palos Verdes Estates, became the bride of Charles Gray, her dancing partner, June 11, in a double-ring ceremony in Tahoe Lutheran Church, Lake Tahoe, Nev.

The couple are a song-and-dance team currently appearing at Hurrahs Country Club in Lake Tahoe. He is the son of Mr. Wayne L. Gray of Los Angeles.

The new Mrs. Gray, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white lace featuring a scalloped neckline detailed in pearls. A pearl crown secured her short pearl-trimmed veil.

Miss Barbara Ehrnstein was the bride's sole attendant. Hugh Brown was best man. Jere Bridgeman and Harlan Wilcox ushered.

Mrs. Bridgeman was attired in pale blue highlighted by white gloves and a white gardenia corsage.

Following the ceremony, the newlyweds welcomed guests to a reception at the Kon Tiki Club in Lake Tahoe.

Mrs. Gray was graduated from Torrance High School with the class of '56. She played first violin with the school orchestra and in her senior year received the Bank of America fine-arts award.

COUNCIL SETS CARD PARTY FOR SATURDAY

The Women's Council of St. Philomena Church will stage a card party Saturday, starting at 8 p.m., in the St. Philomena School hall, 21900 S. Main St.

Pinochle, bridge, and five hundred will be in play. Refreshments will be served.

Members of St. Francis Guild, under direction of Mrs. David Paxton, will be in charge of arrangements.

MRS. ALAN M. KYLE in wedding gown of her own design