Miss Waddingham Named First Senior Girl at South

At a special awards assembly June 10 at South High School, Girls League adviser, Lillian Dean named Carolyn Waddingham, the Girls League choice for Senior Girl of the Year.

Each organization on campus was asked to make one nomination, on the basis of service during three years at South High.

Carolyn also was named by the Student Council where she has served as club co-ordinator, commissioner of publicity, and commissioner of records.

The Senior Class council also nominated her. She served as sophomore treasurer, junior secretary, and senior secretary. She was chairman of the recent Senior Day.

The third organization to submit her name was the Speech Club. Carolyn was primary in the organization of this club three years ago.

She served as president, vice president, secretary, and parliamentarian.

In the last three years she has brought home honors for South in the Lions club contest, Long Beach State contest, and Loyola University contest.

She was named "Most Outstanding Girl" in 1959. In her

Freshman year at North High she was named "Most Promising Girl."

She is a life member and past secretary of the Scholarship Society. She was graduated with a 3.7 grade average as 13th in her class of 327.

In the Thespian Society she has served as president, secretary, and twice as business manager, as well as acting in the junior class play and the all-school play this year.

She was copy-editor for the South High Olympiad. She has been active in the South High Choir and Band.

This fall, Carolyn will attend De Pauw University in Greencastle, Ind. where she will continue her studies in the School of Music.

She received the president's music scholarship from De Pauw and is a winner of the American Legion award for general achievement and service.

Students Plan Beach Party

A beach party is being planned today for children attending the summer program at 223th Street School.

On July 7 a track meet will be held at the school for elementary students in the Harbor area. The PTA will provide refreshments.

Other features of the program are skating every Tuesday, games, classes in crafts. The program was started last week under supervision of Joan Bridges and Kermit Welch.

Miss Carole Moore, W. C. Colby Married

Miss Carole Moore became the bride of William Charles Colby Saturday in the First Methodist Church of Torrance, the same church in which her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde William Moore, 2617 Arlington Ave., were married 32 years ago.

Mr. Colby is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Charles Colby, 4913 Louise Ave. The Rev. Gilbert Zimmerman officiated at the double-ring ceremony.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a full-length gown of chantilly lace and tulle over satin. A pearl tiara secured her fingertip veil and she carried a bouquet of white orchids and stephanotis.

Attending the bride as matron of honor was her sister, Mrs. Thomas Faren. She chose turquoise crystalline and carried white carnations and pink roses for the occasion.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. Daniel Pivovarov and the Misses Rosemarie Erbeta, Judy Bowlds, and Karen Colby, the benedick's sister. All were attired in rose crystalline and carried cascades of white carnations.

Miss Beth Cullum was dressed as a miniature of the matron of honor for her role as flower girl. Michael Faren was ring bearer.

Bert Raiche was best man. Jim Standridge, Ken Pevic, George Mayer, and Bill Morris ushered.

The mother of the bride was in blue brocaded satin with matching accessories. The bridegroom's mother wore a mint-green lace sheath with white accessories.

More than 150 guests attended a reception in the church hall following the service. After a wedding trip to San Francisco, the newlyweds will live in Torrance.

The new Mrs. Colby was graduated from Torrance High School with the class of '59. She is employed as a re-son was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were the Misses Arlene Martinez, Fran Cappala, Anna Mary Beato, and Josephine Meliata.

All were attired in shrimp-tinted silk organza with matching headpieces and long white gloves. Their bouquets were of blue delphinium centered with orchids.

Miss Andrea Nizetich, also in shrimp-tinted silk, carried a basket of blue delphiniums for her role as flower girl. Edward Ruiz Jr., a cousin of the bride, was ring bearer.

Philip Melista served as best man. Ushers were John Calise, Joe Mineghino, Jack Robinson, and George Dawson. Junior ushers were Vincent Mineghino and Richard Gonzales.

The mother of the bride wore an electric-blue lace sheath with matching accessories. Mrs. Mineghino was in beige silk organza with white accessories. Both wore white orchid corsages.

Following the ceremony, guests attended a bridal luncheon at the Assistance League in San Pedro.

The new Mrs. Mineghino was graduated from Narbonne High School. She is employed as a hair stylist with the Virginia Beauty Shop in San Pedro.

Mr. Mineghino attended San Pedro High School and Harbor Junior College. He is with the Independent Fish Company of San Pedro.
