Post-Divorce Counsel Planned at Institute

No city in the United States has as large a population of divorced persons as has Los Angeles, according to Dr. Paul Popenoe, president of the American Institute of Family Relations in Los Angeles. He will discuss techniques for getting rid of feelings of inferiority, guilt, resentment, and depression by acquiring a new perspective. Ensuing programs will deal with problems such as living without a mate, being both father and mother to one's children, understanding the peculiarities of the opposite sex, and creating a new social life. Further information may be had by writing or telephoning the Institute, HO 5-5131.

To give practical aid to men and women who want to make a satisfactory readjustment after divorce, the American Institute of Family Relations is offering a series of five informal talks and discussions under the general title of New Horizons After Divorce. Meeting will be held at the Institute's headquarters, 3387

Polynesian Festival Will Honor Tahiti

A Tahitian festival will be presented on the mainland for the first time July 17, by the Polynesian Restaurant in Torrance. Day-long feasting and ancient ceremonies will be spectacularly highlighted by spine-tingling Tahitian dances performed by provocative dancers from Tahiti, climaxed by the pulsating Otea, Aparima, Ute and the Hivanau.

Featured will be authentic Tamaaraa on the tropical Irapa'e at the High-Talking Chief's Long House of the exotic restaurant. Unequaled gaiety, the Tamaaraa, which the public is invited to by advance reservation, will be held in celebration of La Fete Nationale de Tahiti.

Pete Reitz, recently returned from the South Seas, will produce the gala festival and personally supervise the Tamaaraa.

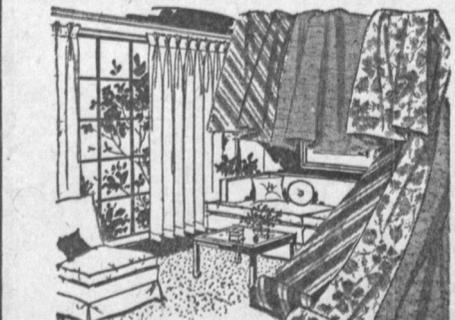

Authentically prepared in the Himaa (earth oven), the Tamaa (food) will be served on flower-decked tables in coconut shells and bamboo sections. Reservations may be made by telephoning the Polynesian.
