

Sacrament Is Scientist Topic Today

Self-examination and purification of thought are essential to spiritual progress. This theme will be emphasized today at First Church of Christ Scientist, 1750 Manuel Ave.

Keynoting the lesson-lesson entitled "Sacrament" is the Golden Text from Psalms (139:23, 24), "Search me, O God, and know my heart; try me, and know my thoughts; and see if there be any wicked way in me, and learn me in the way everlasting."

Luke's Gospel records that the "scribes and Pharisees murmured against his disciples, saying, Why do ye eat and drink with publicans and sinners? And Jesus answering said unto them, They that are whole need not a physician; but they that are sick, I came, not to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance" (5:30-32).

Educator Offers Teaching Advice to Principals

In a passage from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" Mary Baker Eddy says, "The illuminations of Science give us a sense of the nothingness of error, and they show the spiritual inspiration of Love and Truth to be the only fit preparation for admission to the presence and power of the Most High"

Dr. John Jarolimek, noted educator, told Torrance principals at a meeting recently, Head of the elementary education program at San Diego State College, Dr. Jarolimek came to Torrance as a consultant in improving the social studies program. He is the author of a number of books and articles about social studies. He also is a former principal in Minnesota and Wisconsin.

The consultant urged the principals to make sure that social studies instruction involves more than memorizing names, dates, and facts which are not always meaningful. "Social studies also should help to develop good study habits, critical thinking, and ### good attitudes," he said.

"A balanced social studies program is the best kind," he concluded.
