Residents Enroll in Swim Classes

From 450 to 1000 swimmers participate in the Torrance Municipal Plunge free swim program daily, it was announced by the pool manager recently.

The facilities are open to the public from 1 to 4:30 p.m. and 7 to 9:30 p.m. Monday through Friday. On Thursdays, however, the pool is restricted to families from 7 to 8:30. Adults only are allowed to swim on Fridays from 7 to 8 p.m.

During the weekend, free swim is permitted from 9 a.m. to noon and 1 to 5 p.m. on Saturdays, and from noon to 6 p.m. on Sundays. There are four lifeguards on duty at all times, with one on who supervises the activities in the plunge.

Throughout the summer season, classes in beginning swimming, intermediate and advanced are being offered at the pool. Also, specialized courses in lifesaving, competitive swimming and synchronized swimming are being offered.

Classes are held in the mornings and evenings.

Socialites Dine Out

Among the dinner guests recently glimpsed at The Polynesian Restaurant were Mrs. Kenneth Edwards, Miss Yvonne Boggia, Patrick Adkins, Miss Mary Everett and Miss Lonna Holmstedt.

TEACHERS' CHARITY DRIVE — Torrance YMCA, not the Indians, is the recipient of charity money collected by the Torrance Education Association last year. George Heaton, representing the Y (center), receives a bag of wampum from R. K. Petrot, teachers' charity drive chairman, and School Superintendent J. H. Hull. Torrance teachers collected some $7423 for 23 charities.
