

Festival Game Booths to Aid Youth Center for Retarded

CANDIDATE FOR QUEEN—Miss Wendy Moore, SARC's choice for queen of the Lawndale fiesta, is congratulated by Harold McBride, president, and Mrs. Paul Snyder, recording secretary for SARC.

Miss Moore Candidate for Queen

As part of its building-fund project for a recreation center for the retarded children of the county, the Southwest Association for Retarded Children will conduct game booths during the Torrance Ranchero Days this week and the Lawndale Fiesta in September.

The association's Ranchero booth will feature a dart game. A fish pond and a balloon game are planned for the fiesta. William Smith, ways-and-means chairman is in charge of arrangements.

Miss Wendy Moore, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Moore, 3112 W. 175th St., has been chosen by group as its candidate for fiesta queen.

A student at North High, Miss Moore will compete for the title with 19 other entries, four of whom are from Torrance, the Misses Kay Miller, Jeanette Tuitolmondo, Barbara Heyns, and Pat Singleton.

The winner will receive a wardrobe worth $100 and will be awarded the perpetual trophy until the next fiesta.

Mothers' Club Honored for Aid to Park

Citations from the National Recreation Association were given to the McMaster Park Mothers' Club and to Landscape Architect Richard Gawne at a Wednesday dinner gathering of the Torrance Park and Recreation Commission.

The women's group was cited for sponsoring programs and improvements at McMaster Park. Gawne was honored for his donation of professional services in designing Los Angeles Park.

Mayor Albert Isen and Councilman George Bradford presented the awards.

Recreation Director Harry Van Bellehem mentioned others who have aided the Torrance recreation program with gifts of time, talent and money.

These include the Torrance Rotary Club, Las Colinas Garden Club, Palos Verdes Riviera Homeowners Assn., Artist Paul Salzburg, Mrs. Herma Tillim, Nativity Catholic Church, Mr. and Mrs. Henry M. Guenser, and local merchants.

Also Torrance Adult Club, George Gillum, Riviera Tennis Club, Corn Stompers Square Dance Club, South Torrance Lions Club, Sea-Aire Women's Golf Club, Southwest Park Homeowners' Association, Junior Women's Club, Architect Hugh Davies, and area newspapers.

Bernard Dougan, retiring president of the commission was master of ceremonies. Other participants included the Rev. Milton Sippel, commission president, and Councilman J. A. Beasley.

POLITICAL PLANS—Mmes. Robert Prindiville, Stanley K. Sharpe and Perry Smith of South Bay Club of Federated Republican Women plan fund-raising theater party.

Republicans Set Theater Party to Aid Campaign

The South Bay Club of Federated Republican Women will sponsor a theater party July 21 to a performance of "Holiday for Lovers" by the Hampton Players in Redondo Beach.

The comedy, written by Ronald Alexander, deals with the escapades of an American Family on a holiday in Europe.

Final plans for the event, one of the club's campaign fund-raising projects, were made Thursday at a luncheon meeting. Persons wishing to attend may call FR 2-6704.

Guest speaker at the luncheon was Mrs. R. G. Kenyon, state president of the club and one of the 11 woman delegates who will attend the Republican convention, starting July 25 in Chicago.

In discussing her topic, "Why Women in Politics," Mrs. Kenyon noted that women were the backbone of precinct organization.

Booth decorations will be in charge of Mmes. V. E. Benstead and Chester Mainier. The carnival will be open Wednesday through Friday at 5 p.m., Saturday at noon and Sunday at 1 p.m.

The club held its board meeting July 13 at the club house and outlined its tentative program schedule for the year, according to Mrs. Alma Smith, with Mrs. A. Z. England, ways-and-means chairman reporting on the Ranchero Days project.

Plans for the joint open-house tea to be held Wednesday July 27 were presented by Mmes. Emma Roberts and Carol Clothworthy. The tea will be held from 2 to 4 p.m.

The program will be in charge of Julia Stamps, dean of chairman. Juniors will serve refreshments and hostesses will be the Senior and Junior board members.

The tea table will be arranged by Mrs. J. P. Montague with Mmes. Benstead and Andrew Acampora in charge of decorations.

The following chairmen were ratified: Mmes. J. P. Bay youth and conservation and narcotics; McCune J. Beale, California history and landmarks; John Thuss, conservation and natural resources; W. L. Norman, education; Benstead, and Acampora gardens and city beautiful; H. J. Osborne, health and public welfare-Philanthropy; and E. L. Snodgrass, home crafts.

Also Mmes. John Melville, international projects-affairs and hostess; J. E. Dillon, legislation and government; J. W. Post, amenities and hospitality; C. A. Perkins, American home and safety; James Burchett, music; and W. I. Laughon, son leader.

Club president, Mrs. R. J. Apsey reported on the district board meeting held July 8 at the Redondo Beach Woman's Club House and invited board members to meet at her home Aug. 17 at 10 a.m.

Ranchero Plans Announced by Woman's Club

The Torrance Woman's Club will sponsor a "Hawaiian Pitch" booth as their project for the 1960 Ranchero Days Program July 20 to 24 at the Civic Center, 3031 Torrance Blvd.

Booth decorations will be in charge of Mmes. V. E. Benstead and Chester Mainier. The carnival will be open Wednesday through Friday at 5 p.m., Saturday at noon and Sunday at 1 p.m.

The club held its board meeting July 13 at the club house and outlined its tentative program schedule for the year, according to Mrs. Alma Smith, with Mrs. A. Z. England, ways-and-means chairman reporting on the Ranchero Days project.

Plans for the joint open-house tea to be held Wednesday July 27 were presented by Mmes. Emma Roberts and Carol Clothworthy. The tea will be held from 2 to 4 p.m.

The program will be in charge of Julia Stamps, dean of chairman. Juniors will serve refreshments and hostesses will be the Senior and Junior board members.

The tea table will be arranged by Mrs. J. P. Montague with Mmes. Benstead and Andrew Acampora in charge of decorations.

The following chairmen were ratified: Mmes. J. P. Bay youth and conservation and narcotics; McCune J. Beale, California history and landmarks; John Thuss, conservation and natural resources; W. L. Norman, education; Benstead, and Acampora gardens and city beautiful; H. J. Osborne, health and public welfare-Philanthropy; and E. L. Snodgrass, home crafts.

Also Mmes. John Melville, international projects-affairs and hostess; J. E. Dillon, legislation and government; J. W. Post, amenities and hospitality; C. A. Perkins, American home and safety; James Burchett, music; and W. I. Laughon, son leader.

Club president, Mrs. R. J. Apsey reported on the district board meeting held July 8 at the Redondo Beach Woman's Club House and invited board members to meet at her home Aug. 17 at 10 a.m.

The club held its board meeting July 13 at the club house and outlined its tentative program schedule for the year, according to Mrs. Alma Smith, with Mrs. A. Z. England, ways-and-means chairman reporting on the Ranchero Days project.

Plans for the joint open-house tea to be held Wednesday July 27 were presented by Mmes. Emma Roberts and Carol Clothworthy. The tea will be held from 2 to 4 p.m.

The program will be in charge of Julia Stamps, dean of chairman. Juniors will serve refreshments and hostesses will be the Senior and Junior board members.

The tea table will be arranged by Mrs. J. P. Montague with Mmes. Benstead and Andrew Acampora in charge of decorations.

The following chairmen were ratified: Mmes. J. P. Bay youth and conservation and narcotics; McCune J. Beale, California history and landmarks; John Thuss, conservation and natural resources; W. L. Norman, education; Benstead, and Acampora gardens and city beautiful; H. J. Osborne, health and public welfare-Philanthropy; and E. L. Snodgrass, home crafts.

Also Mmes. John Melville, international projects-affairs and hostess; J. E. Dillon, legislation and government; J. W. Post, amenities and hospitality; C. A. Perkins, American home and safety; James Burchett, music; and W. I. Laughon, son leader.

Club president, Mrs. R. J. Apsey reported on the district board meeting held July 8 at the Redondo Beach Woman's Club House and invited board members to meet at her home Aug. 17 at 10 a.m.

The club held its board meeting July 13 at the club house and outlined its tentative program schedule for the year, according to Mrs. Alma Smith, with Mrs. A. Z. England, ways-and-means chairman reporting on the Ranchero Days project.

Plans for the joint open-house tea to be held Wednesday July 27 were presented by Mmes. Emma Roberts and Carol Clothworthy. The tea will be held from 2 to 4 p.m.

The program will be in charge of Julia Stamps, dean of chairman. Juniors will serve refreshments and hostesses will be the Senior and Junior board members.

The tea table will be arranged by Mrs. J. P. Montague with Mmes. Benstead and Andrew Acampora in charge of decorations.

The following chairmen were ratified: Mmes. J. P. Bay youth and conservation and narcotics; McCune J. Beale, California history and landmarks; John Thuss, conservation and natural resources; W. L. Norman, education; Benstead, and Acampora gardens and city beautiful; H. J. Osborne, health and public welfare-Philanthropy; and E. L. Snodgrass, home crafts.

Also Mmes. John Melville, international projects-affairs and hostess; J. E. Dillon, legislation and government; J. W. Post, amenities and hospitality; C. A. Perkins, American home and safety; James Burchett, music; and W. I. Laughon, son leader.

Club president, Mrs. R. J. Apsey reported on the district board meeting held July 8 at the Redondo Beach Woman's Club House and invited board members to meet at her home Aug. 17 at 10 a.m.

Women

Bernice Brown, Woman's Editor

TELEPHONE DA 5-1515

Foreign Scouts Will Instruct Torrance Troop

Former Algerian, Austrian, German, and Cuban Girl Scouts will teach their national songs and dances to 40 Torrance girls attending Girl Scout Day Camp, July 25 to 29, in Torrance Park.

Mrs. William Weber, 23002 Kathryn Ave., has been appointed day-camp director. She will be aided by an adult unit leader for each eight girls.

Although Los Angeles Council Girl Scout Day Camps are un completely by volunteers, all leaders have received training for their jobs and often are veterans in Scouting service.

Leader of Intermediate Scout Troop 1374, Mrs. Weber, has been given director's training, advanced first aid, camper's training, and attended arts and crafts workshop. She has a daughter, Nancy Ann, 12, in her troop.

Emphasis of the summer day camp is on outdoor activities, but will vary from unit to unit.

Girl Scout philosophy encourages members to develop their own interests, thinking, and initiative, and to this purpose they are allowed to plan their own activities.

To carry out the theme of International friendship, songs, dances, and foods from other lands will be utilized. Among the special resource persons available will be a photographer who will help girls interested in that skill. Camp sessions will run from 9:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m., with an assembly program planned for the last day.

Leon Aiken Receives Degree in Indiana

Leon James Aiken of Torrance is among more than 4000 graduates added to the alumni rolls of Indiana University at the recent 131st commencement ceremonies of the Hoosier state university.

At Comet Salon, Style Bows to Individuality

A coiffure for every personality is the motto of the Comet Beauty Shop scheduled to open Tuesday at 2201 1/2 Figueroa St. in Torrance.

Hairstylists, Mmes. Harvey Ruffin and James Hammonds will be on hand throughout the day to enjoy coffee and doughnuts with prospective patrons and discuss the latest in autumn styling including the new bubble cut which appears to be sweeping the country.

"However," Mrs. Hammonds stressed, "our policy is to consider the individual and then the style."

"We believe that every woman should discuss her preference, how much time she is able to allow for beauty care at home, and her beauty budget with a trained operator before deciding on a coiffure."

"Our customers," she added, "will not meet their hair-style in the supermarket or at the theater. Each coiffure will be designed especially for the individual."

Mmes. Hammonds and Ruffin have announced that this is the first in a chain of Comet Beauty Shops they plan to open in the Torrance area with the next one slated for Lomita in the fall.

HONORED—Mmes. Donald Englert and Keith Vandervort of McMaster Park Mothers Club and Richard Gawne, landscape artist, display plaques from Recreation Department.

Sleep Out Highlight of Camp

An overnight sleep out last Friday concluded a four-day primitive day camp at El Nido Park for the Central Torrance Girl Scout District.

The Kiwanis Club of Torrance donated several camperships, and the Rotary Club of Torrance underwrote a large amount of the equipment.

Activities included hikes, nature study, lashing, compass reading, semaphore, tent pitching, and outdoor cooking.

Girl Scouts from Intermediate Troop 1569, sponsored by 223 Street PTA, were among those participating in these activities.

The executive staff included Mmes. Richard Sullivan, director, L. H. Voien, assistant director, Robert Major, equipment manager, and John F. Beoham Jr., camp nurse.

Camp leaders were Mmes. Mervin A. Phillips, William L. Wilson, B. C. Riggs Jr., L. Dyer, James Alexander, and Andrew Javaski.

Assistants included Miss Candy Voien, and Mmes. Vernon Ward, Arthur Campbell, Donald Choquette, George Ackerman, Cassida Hughes, Leo Petrosino, and Frank Perkins.

Women's Council Plans Picnic, Social Evening

A social evening, a rummage sale, and a family picnic will highlight the summer activities of the Women's Council of St. Philomena Catholic Church, according to Mrs. Gene LeRoy, president.

The social will be held Wednesday under direction of Mrs. Clarence Turner.

The group's annual rummage sale is being planned for July 29 and 30 in the school hall, 21900 S. Main St. Doors will open at 10 a.m. on both days. Mrs. Edward Bernardin is in charge of arrangements.

Mrs. Mike Marinovich, chairman, has announced that the council's family picnic will take place in the latter part of August.

Baumanns Greet Eleventh Child

"Seven come eleven" may be dice talk to some but its autobiography to tiny Clayton William Baumann who checked in recently at Torrance Memorial Hospital.

Clayton's arrival makes him the 11th member of his family, he has seven brothers at home like him.

In fact the Baumann "brothers seven" have now become the "brothers eight."

Clayton William may not always consider them so, but he has an added bonus of three sisters, Barbara, 1, Nancy, 11, and Linda, 10.

The brother's department includes Raymond, 12, Wally, 9, Allen, 7, Richard, 5, Jeffrey, 4, Ronald, 3, and Donald, 2.

While mom has been kept busy switching three-cornered pants at home, daddy brings home the bacon as a switchmen for Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company.

Two sets of proud grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. George L. Clark, of Downey and Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Van Mayesen of Los Angeles, are busy putting their stamp of approval on the latest addition to the family tree, who is now exercising his lungs at the parental home, 3313 Winlock Rd.

Gem Society to Hear Program on Desert

The Palos Verdes Gem and Mineral Society will view a slide show entitled "Desert" at its meeting Tuesday at 8 p.m. in the California Hall, 1932 Pacific Coast Hwy.

ALTAR SOCIETY CARD PARTY SET JULY 20

A card party will be sponsored Wednesday by the Altar Society of St. Peter and Paul parish, starting at 8 p.m., in the school auditorium, 706 Bayview St.

Members of St. Catherine's unit will be hostesses at the event. Mrs. Eva Bronn is chairman. The public is being invited to attend.

WORLD SERIES ATTIRE—Miss Eloise Perry, South High student, shows pale brown linen sheath with separate sweater, typical of styles to be on view Tuesday at the Torrance Sears.

Photo by Doug Kilgour

Spring and Fall Meet at Sears Style Show

Caught between spring sheers and woolly autumn, July is never long on fashion. However, when the heat has you limp as a rag, it would be as refreshing as a mint julep to open the closet door and find something beside the limp remains of spring and the barren promise of fall.

Yet, too often stores are still stocked with leftovers from the Easter parade or bright with the woollens of fall . . . items which you will adore in October but which will feel mighty scratchy against your summer sunburn.

Pleasing as a glass of iced tea are the frosty, never out-of-season transitional cottons beckoning from the racks of the Sears Torrance fashion department.

Choosing your own favorite additions to your cotton wardrobe at the Tuesday midsummer forecast fashion show at Sears, which feature a complete line of always fashionable traditional cottons.

Sears fashion shows are a regular Tuesday afternoon highlight from 1:30 to 3 p.m. at their fashion center. Torrance resident Kay Perry is fashion coordinator with many Torrance girls serving as models. Make a note to attend the following week's show to get a glimpse of what fashion has cooked up to make the back-to-school-back-to-work transitions as painless and attractive as possible.