FRENTZ HEADS CHEST DRIVE

Jim Becker, Harbor Area Community Chest chairman, announced this week that Harold G. Frentz, who headed last year's successful drive, has again accepted the top post of the Torrance appeal. Only Gardena and Lomita-Harbor City joined Torrance in the 100% class last year.

Associated with the Bank of America for 22 years, Frentz has been Torrance branch manager for the past three years. He is a member of the American Institute of Banking and of the Alumni Association of the Pacific Coast Graduate School of Banking.

He is a member of the Torrance Kiwanis Club, Torrance Executive Dinner Club, Torrance Area, and a director of the Torrance Chamber of Commerce.

Torrance, largest of all Harbor Area communities included in the Los Angeles Area Community Chest, will need 1367 volunteer workers, according to Frentz. Enrollment of these volunteers is now underway and persons interested may call him, FA 8-7370.

Becker also announced that Fred Mill, controller, National Supply Co., Torrance, will serve as area campaign vice chairman.

Other leadership positions for the Harbor Chest campaign filled include Attorney Ed Russ, Gardena City Chairman; Vince A. Bauchiero, manager, Bank of America, Lomita, Lomita-Harbor City, City Chairman; Jack Kahlo, Kahlo Realty, Palos Verdes

Summer Students Study Business

Summer school ended recently for 83 Los Angeles City school system teachers when they were graduated from the fifth annual "Business in Action" summer point project at the Southern California Gas Company's Los Angeles headquarters.

On the platform during graduation ceremonies were Robert J. Purdy, superintendent, division of elementary education of Los Angeles city school system, and gas company president and general manager F. M. Banks.

Conceived in cooperation with the In-Service Training section of the Los Angeles Board of Education, the gas company's "Business in Action" summer school for teachers was designed to present the story of the American free enterprise system as it is working today in thousands of businesses in this community.

During the two-week session, the educators visited the utility's gas dispatching center, customer service training facilities, various pipeline locations, and construction jobs.

Commencement day ceremonies also marked the close of an intensive study of personnel training requirements and vocational opportunities for Los Angeles school students.
