

District Deputy Prexy Installs Rebekah Officers

Torrance Rebekah Lodge No. 1347 met Wednesday night at Torrance Masonic Hall, 2336 Cabrillo Ave., with Noble Grand Friedla Shaffer presiding and Mrs. C. A. Parker, visitor from Michigan, was introduced and welcomed. "We extend a cordial invitation to out-of-state members of the order visiting Torrance to visit with us," Ruth Deerris, press chairman, said. Recently, the district deputy-president, Cecil Horton, and Marshall Nelle Bohing visited the lodge and installed officers.

Alice Jennings was installed as vice grand with Stehna Norris installed as right supporter to noble grand, Olive Veatch, right supporter to vice grand, and Maud Milburn, left supporter to the vice grand.

July 27, the deputy and marshal will make her social visit to Torrance lodge to give instructions to officers.

The following committee chairmen were appointed: Ruth Deerris, press, and Ann Colluis, UN Pilgrimage of Youth.

The noble grand appointed Ruth Deerris to head the press committee, Ann Colluis to head the good fellowship committee, and Pauline Smart to head the UN Pilgrimage of Youth group.

Tally Named Head of Kiwanis Intern'l

Chicago, Illinois. — Joseph O. Tally Jr., 39, Fayetteville, North Carolina attorney, has been named President of Kiwanis International. He was elected to the number one Kiwanis post Wednesday, June 29th, by delegates attending the 45th Annual Convention of Kiwanis International in Miami — Miami Beach. News of Tally's election was received today by officers of the Kiwanis Club of Torrance, California.

As head of Kiwanis International, Tally will be official spokesman for 260,000 Kiwanians in more than 4700 clubs located throughout the United States and Canada. He succeeds Albert J. Tully, Mobile, Alabama attorney. Tally has held the Kiwanis presidency since August of 1959.

Immediately prior to his election as president of Kiwanis, Tally served one year as the organization's president-elect. He was the first Phi national legal fraternity.

member to hold this newly-created post. Tally has also served two terms as a trustee of Kiwanis International and one year as its treasurer. He has also been president of the Kiwanis Club of Fayetteville, lieutenant governor and governor of the Carolinas Kiwanis District, and a member and chairman of many district and international Kiwanis committees. He has been a Kiwanian for 13 years.

The new president is a practicing attorney and a past vice-president of the North Carolina Bar Association. He is also a former mayor of Fayetteville, a past president of the North Carolina League of Municipalities and a former professor of law at Wake Forest College.

Tally attended Duke University and Harvard Law School. He is a member of Phi Beta Kappa national honor fraternity, and Phi Delta Phi national legal fraternity.
