

Fathers Study Football Plans

A meeting of fathers to discuss plans for the forthcoming football program at McMaster Park is slated for 7:30 p.m. Aug. 15.

The session will be in the park's community building at 3624 W. Artesia Blvd.

L. E. Breitenfeldt, director of the park, said registrations are being accepted from boys wishing to play on any of the pigskin squads.

He said over 300 boys participated in a 10-inch softball league at the park this summer.

In recent playoffs, games were won by the Yankees, Skyline All-Stars and Rocky Mountain All-Stars.

Park Department Offers Journeys to Comedy, Mts.

A musical comedy and a mountain setting will be visited by teen-aged groups in programs planned by the Torrance Recreation Department during the next two weeks.

Joe E. Brown, the cavernous-mouthed comedian, will be seen in a performance of "Show Boat" at the Philharmonic Auditorium, Aug. 16. The bus leaves at 7:30 p.m. and the cost per person is $2.75.

Mount Baldy's ski lift will be visited Aug. 23, with the bus leaving at 8 a.m. The cost, including transportation, ski instruction, and a ride on the life is $3 per person.

Both trips will leave from the Recreation Department headquarters, 1511 Cravens Ave., where reservations may be made.
