

Las Vecinas Members Back Community Chest

"Community Chest directorship and solicitation will be one of the initial projects of Las Vecinas Woman's Club," Mrs. Albert E. Kurz, president, announced at a recent board meeting.

Mrs. R. W. Klock, junior past president, will be the unit chairman for the drive this year, which begins in November. She announced that her division chairmen will be Mrs. Jack H. Brown, Las Vecinas community projects chairman; Mrs. Ralph Weyant and Mrs. Glenn Singer.

Plans for the forthcoming year were formulated at the board meeting. Board members present included: Mrs. William D. Petersen, first vice-president; Mrs. Donald L. Meyer, second vice-president; Mrs. David Halstead, recording secretary; Mrs. Gerald L. King, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Lee Scott, treasurer; Mrs. Roy A. Menashe, membership; Mrs. David Hurford, parliamentarian; Mrs. John F. Veltmann, publicity; Mrs. Brown, community projects; Mrs. William F. Reid, courtesy; Mrs. William H. Beckman, by-laws; Mrs. Paul M. Coty, telephone; and Mrs. R. W. Klock.

Mrs. Roy A. Menashe reported that there are a few openings for membership to women residing in the Hollywood Riviera, Seaside, and Palos Verdes Riviera areas.

Social events planned for the coming year were disclosed by Mrs. William D. Petersen and Mrs. Donald L. Meyer. Monthly meetings with planned programs to be held at the Plush Horse, beginning Sept. 29; monthly teas, luncheons, and bridges, a fashion show, a night especially planned for husbands, two dances and a Christmas program among the activities anticipated.

Auxiliary Presents Maternity Tea

Members of the Little Company of Mary Hospital auxiliary held their first maternity tea in the tea room of the new hospital, hosting 100 expectant mothers and their husbands July 31.

Mrs. Frank H. Forester, president of the auxiliary, received the guests and presented Sister Margaret Mary, who is in charge of the maternity floor.

Assisting Mrs. Forester were Mrs. Clarence Van Lingen, first vice president and chairman of the event; Mrs. Laurence Smith, second vice president; Mrs. Anthony Daly, membership chairman; and Mrs. Ben Kuchar, volunteer chairman.

Also assisting were Mrs. Marie Isley, Mrs. Charles A. Kirsnis, Mrs. George Levenson, member of the advisory board, and Mrs. Vincent Tyrrell.

The elaborate tea table was covered with a rare pointe venise cloth. Mrs. Victor Benstead had arranged a crystal epergne filled with waterlilies in various shades of orchid. Dark lavender candles in tall silver candleabra stood at either side of the centerpiece.

After an address by Sister Margaret Mary, she and the hostesses escorted the guests on a tour of the maternity floor.

DISTINCTIVE CUSTOM DRAPERIES

REMEMBERING CAN BE DIFFICULT . . . BUT KNOWING CAN BE A LOT HARDER CHECK US FOR THE ACCURATE AND HONEST FACTS

Many thousands of Torrance and South Bay homeowners have Willbank's Draperies in their homes. There is more than one reason why all these people have selected us to do the drapery jobs in their new homes. Price, of course, is a major consideration. . . . With the largest shop, best equipment, and largest stock of mill fabrics our bids are consistently lower than smaller competitors . . . But price alone doesn't make a good looking window. It's the quantity and quality of our service . . . one woman has sold another. The quality of our work, the after the sale service, the lower price and better selection has made Willbanks the largest Drapery factory in the entire area.
